Brenda Gray - queen

A fine afternoon's opening day activities for Kinsmen Rodeo 116 was enjoyed by a fairly large crowd at the Rodeo Grounds last Sunday.

Hopefully the fine afternoon augured well for the main events which come up June 17, 18 and 19, building up the hope that the Rodeo will not be rained out.

There was plenty to keep spectators happy.

There were canoe races down in the tree grove north of the rodeo grounds.

A tired but happy Dave McConkey and Joe Desmond won first prize in the canoe race, which took them from a point on the Sturgeon River north of the rodeo grounds to the Highway crossing and back.

They received $100 and a trophy for their efforts and did their winning trip in 26 minutes eight seconds.

George Sim and Everett Walski came in second winning $25.

In the powderpuff entry

Gerry Bloemhof and Barb Chan took the honours winning $25.

This is the fourth year the canoe races have taken place and there were 12 entries in the event.

The afternoon began with Mayor Dick Plain cutting the ribbon for rodeo opening day activities and a fly past by two Twin Otters of Canadian Armed Forces Search and Rescue Squadron 418, Edmonton.

THIS YEAR'S Rodeo Queen Brenda Gray is congratulated on winning the title at Rodeo Opening Day events last Sunday afternoon. She and her parents also won a free trip to Vancouver from Pacific Western Airlines. The tickets for the trip were presented by PWA representative Mel Crothers.

Gene Miller, 1976 Canadian Champion Bareback Rider on Kesler's famous Creamo. Gene also drew Kesler's Two Spots in the CFR 111. Gene is known as one of the quiet men on the circuit and has a mixed farm at Busby, Alberta, that takes a large share of his time.

Not only cowboys win, broncs are champs too

- Kesler has his share

Professional Rodeo Producer Reg Kesler, and wife Liz, offer years of experience, blended with quality rodeo livestock and a plan for the future, to the many rodeo committees they work with throughout the United States and Canada.

Kesler has been in the rodeo business since he got on his first steer at age 14. He was all-around champion cowboy in Canada for three years and participated in a Command performance for the Queen of England.

At their bases of operation in Montana and Canada, the Keslers pasture 500 head of livestock and they have an extensive bucking horse breeding program. Their Miller Creek Ranch in Missoula, Montana and the Canadian Ranch in Rosemary, Alberta are the homes of 200 bucking horses, 60 bulls, 150 Mexican steers, 60 roping calves and 25 parade and saddle horses which Kesler uses in the 35 rodeos he produces each year. The ranches are also the homes of some 80 young prospective bucking horses waiting to join the ranks of top broncs like Kesler's Moonshine, Three Bars, Hard Twist and Creamo. These are the champions of the Kesler outfit.

Three Bars was twice named best bareback bronc of the National Finals Rodeo and placed among the top three broncs in the nation seven other times.

Another champion bucking horse, Moonshine, was twice named the best bucking horse in the United States and claimed the same honors two years in Canada. They are proud that five bucking horses bred and raised at their ranch were accepted

Flea Market looks great!

People interested in renting vendor's tables at the mammoth Rodeo Flea Market in St. Albert Arena may do so up until 10 p.m. Thursday evening by telephoning Don Parnell at 987-2550.

Mrs. Parnell said Tuesday they are looking at approximately 160 tables and more could be included. Everyday will be different at the Kinsmen Flea Market, with changing vendors and changing merchandise over Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The market opens at 11 a.m. each day, and runs until 7 p.m.

The Flea Market, new to St. Albert this year, is expected to be an exciting event that will draw thousands of visitors and it will involve a lot of Kinsmen manpower through six four-hour shifts manned by four Kin per shift. All proceeds to the Kinsmen go back into the community through various service projects.

New midway at rodeo

The St. Albert Kinsmen have contracted with a new midway for Rodeo 116 this 17, 18 and 19 of June. The midway is operated by West Coast Amusements Ltd. of Langley, B.C.

"Bingo" Hauser the owner/manager of the show states that he is very pleased to bring his show to St. Albert this year. He says that though he has operated in B.C. for 15 years this is the first year in Alberta.

The show features new rides and equipment, all in top mechanical condition. The show maintains a large winter quarters where the rides are thoroughly gone over and reconstructed each winter.

Bingo Hauser and his wife, Jackie, are the head of this show and with the help of their son, Bob and wife, Wendy, and daughter, Laura travel to fairs, rodeos and shopping centres entertaining children of all ages.

Bingo and Jackie started out with a wild animal show in the late 40's and travelled

CELEBRATE RODEO WEEK IN ST. ALBERT!

Last Wednesday or Thursday night the Lions Park bandshell was again the object of thoughtless vandalism. The brick wall at the back of the shell was completely demolished and electrical conduit pulled from the walls and roof. Local bricklayer, Adrian Gamache was at work this morning repairing the damage. Dr. Cuts of the Breakfast Lions Club is hopeful that the new neighbourhood watch program will cut down the number of incidents of this nature which have plagued the park for many years.

Vandalism strikes rodeo week

An ugly note has marred Rodeo Week, as vandalism raised its head again, striking both the Rodeo Grounds and Lions Park. Special Events Chairman Jim Watt told the Gazette that the Kinette food concession building stored at the rodeo grounds had been broken into and damaged and the filth left around the main grounds was indescribable - "the vandals are worse than animals." All of which caused extra work and expense above expected work such as widening the track and repairs to chute gates.

Sunday it was discovered that the vandals had really outdone themselves at Lions Park, an area subject to consistent vandalism over the years. It took a lot of hard work to knock down the rear wall of the bandshell built by the Lions and a valuable asset for many community functions.

Meeting Tuesday morning the Breakfast Lions were in touch with Supper Lions President Laurie Turner and a decision was reached that in order to have the park ready for the Rodeo Breakfast, an annual project in which the Lions support the Kinsmen, the bandshell would be repaired immediately. The matter of how costs would be met would be ironed out later.

Lions members formed a work party for preliminary labour. Adrian Gamache was contacted and willing to fit in the work and Andy Kampen agreed to assist. Masonry work began today.

It was learned later that the mayor said Monday night in response to questions from reporters that the city would take over park maintenance and the Lions would be responsible for capital improvements.

broncs

among the stock that qualified for the National Finals Rodeo in 1976.

One outstanding animal born on the ranch, Three Cheers, has already started folling in her mother's hoofprints. At age four, this offspring of the sensational Three Bars, bucked off top bareback rider Jimmy Dix in pro rodeo action last year.

Always in demand, Kesler annually sends livestock to the indoor rodeos at Denver, Colorado and Fort Worth, San Antonio, and Houston, Texas, where 70 performances are held in 40 days. His stock then goes to Canada in the spring and they spend the rest of the year operating all over the Northern United States and Canada. Kesler has been continuously involved in the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede for 36 years. He handled the four-performance Saskatchewan Exposition held in Saskatoon April 1-3.

Realizing the importance of top quality rodeo production as well as top quality rodeo livestock, the Keslers deal with each rodeo on an individual basis, since each has its own special needs and desires. Liz serves as rodeo timer and secretary and keeps abreast of the many changes in these areas while Reg takes charge of the overall arena production from start to finish. They have the experience and ability to handle rodeos of any size, and they have the desire to make each one the very best.

STOCK CONTRACTOR

For Reg and Liz Kesler, the rodeo business is more than a way of life. It is working with what they consider the best people in the world - Rodeo Commitees, Rodeo Cowboys and spectators. It is establishing long-lasting friendships with these people and planning for the future of rodeo through the animals they love.

queen

There were chariot races and a fine display of horsemanship by the Klondike Mounted Square Dancers who will be performing regularly during the rodeo events this week.

Of course everyone was kept on tenderhooks for the "biggy" of the afternoon, the crowning of the Rodeo Queen, who this year is 17 year old Brenda Gray.

She and her parents won return tickets from Pacific Western Airlines to Vancouver to mark the happy event.

Ms. Gray was also presented with a special stetson to mark her crowning as rodeo queen.

The other finalists in the event were Theresa Gullberg, 18, Sharon McRae, 18, Cheryl Culp, 16 and Rachel Stephenson, 15.

There was some fine Scottish dancing from the Cheryl Walters School of Dancing to the excellent fine piping of Pipe Major Dave Trews from Stony Plain.

Just about all through the afternoon there was a tug of war going on between a number of local schools. And the school which came out tops was Robert Rundle who took the first place ribbon after the "tussling."

Schools who took part in the tug-o-war were Vital Grandin and Father Jan, Ronald Harvey, Sir Alexander Mackenzie, Robert Rundle and Bertha Kennedy.

Another item at the opening day activities was the dunk tank just at the entrance to the grounds where many a Kinsmen got doused when the ball throwing was accurate.

with various shows for about 10 years. As zoos and game farms became more popular and the wild animal show less popular, they bought a Merry-Go-Round and slowly built this into the modern show that will be seen at St. Albert this year.

Son, Bob Hauser is concession manager and assists his father with the moving and setting up of the show. Daughter, Laura Hauser has the candy floss and popcorn concession. Latest member of the family is daughter-in-law, Wendy who has the modern ice cream concession.

With all of the family involved and working together it makes West Coast Amusements a true family show.

Bingo can still be found covered with grease and dirt while the rides are going up. This is so he knows what is happening with each ride. He states, "No one checks the rides like I do myself, and I feel personally responsible for the safety of each and every person that rides my rides."

Come out to St. Albert and enjoy a rodeo and one of the best carnivals in Canada.

Give Rodeo 116 all you've got!

The St. Albert Kinsmen Rodeo 116, better known as the Rainmaker's Rodeo, sponsored by the Kinsmen Club of St. Albert, will officially get underway June 17, 18 and 19 at the St. Albert Rodeo Grounds.

One of Canada's 10 largest outdoor rodeos, this year's edition of Rodeo 116 promises to be bigger and better than ever.

Top name riders, pony-chuckwagon and chariot races, plus an all new midway, the world's largest flea market and a three-day casino are but a few of the many events to be staged at this year's annual festival.

Action really gets underway Friday, Kiddies Day where admission to the rodeo is free to kids under 12.

The midway and rodeo grounds open at 4 p.m. Friday and at 7 p.m. there is the first rodeo performance. At 8:30 p.m. there is an intermission with chuckwagon and chariot races to follow. On the same day there is the St. Albert Kinsmen flea market in the arena at 11 a.m. and there is a casino at 12 noon in the St. Albert Inn.

SATURDAY

June 18 kicks off at 8 a.m. with a free breakfast courtesy of the St. Albert Lions Club at Lions Park.

Then 10 a.m. sees the "biggy" of the day with the Rodeo Parade through St. Albert. The parade begins at Granite Avenue - Grandin Road - the form up area - and goes down Grosvenor Boulevard, Gresham Boulevard, down to Sir Winston Churchill Avenue and finishes at the Father Jan school for dispersal.

At 2 p.m. there is the official opening rodeo performance followed at 3:30 p.m. by an intermission with the Klondike Mounted Square Dancers.

From 12 noon to midnight the Casino at the St. Albert Inn will be operating.

Saturday evening sees chuckwagon and chariot races and the midway will be operating till midnight.

SUNDAY

After the tremendous activity of Saturday, the last day of the rodeo gets underway with the rodeo grounds and midway opening at 12 noon.

At 2 p.m. there are the rodeo finals with another ride from the Klondike Mounted Square Dancers during the intermission at 3:30 p.m.

Then there are the chuckwagon and chariot racing finals and at midnight the midway closes.

The St. Albert rodeo is sanctioned by the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association (CRCA), and competing for the Belvedere Kingsize awards, riders can look forward to prize money in excess of $3,000.

The St. Albert Rodeo 116 is a Kinsmen Community Service project and the club is looking forward to participation not only from residents of St. Albert but also from surrounding rural communities and from the city of Edmonton.

HIT THE DUST! -- Craig Butterfield, of Ponoka, Alberta, attempts to bring down a stubborn steer at a recent rodeo in Western Canada. Steer wrestling is one of the exciting events at the more than 70 rodeos sanctioned by the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association. In addition to local prize money, cowboys and cowgirls also will be building points toward the rich Belvedere King Size Rodeo Awards with $30,000 in cash bonuses. (Marcinkoski Photo).

June chamber meet almost a 'wipe-out'

The regular meeting of the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce was almost a wipe-out last week (June 8) when only 14 members came to the meeting.

A quorum of 13 is needed for the Chamber to do business.

Not a great deal was reported or achieved at the meeting, and Chamber President Bill Tehir expressed his disappointment at the attendance openly.

He explained that one reason for the low turnout was that cards had not been mailed to let people know the meeting was on. But it looks as if the little green cards will be sent out in time for the next full meeting of the Chamber, July 13.

Attendance at Chamber meetings over the last 12 months has been averaging out at 40. Attendances also took a marked upswing when the venue for the meetings was changed from the Club Mocombo to the St. Albert Inn. (There are about 240 businesses in St. Albert).

Chamber member Ray

Gibbon, Sunlife Assurance Canada wants to get another membership drive going with membership prorated on the number of months left for this year.

Individual membership of the Chamber is $20., $30 for a business with less than five members and $50 for one with over five.

FINAL REPORT ON TRADE FAIR NOT YET OUT

The report for the recent Chamber sponsored Trade Fair in St. Albert is not yet out. But a $3,000 profit is reported and some of this money may be spent on a podium for the Chamber's guest speakers.

The Chamber has been approached by the Federal Business Development Bank according to president Tehir as well as Alberta Opportunities.

Either of these organizations could have a guest speaker at the July meeting of the Chamber.

So far nothing definite on this has been confirmed says president Tehir.

There was one change on the executive during the Chamber meeting.

Gary Johnson is no longer vice-president. He has recently changed jobs and cannot give the time to the vice-presidency. However he still remains a member of the Chamber.

Roger Lemieux is now vice-president of the Chamber, voted in by acclamation.

City ambulance service picking up support

Alderman Myrna Fyfe suggested to committee of the whole last Monday night some form of a pat on the back should be given to the organizations who have indicated support for the city's new emergency care service.

This will come in the form of a letter from the city to the groups she confirmed after the short meeting last Monday night.

(The committee of the whole meeting, chaired by Alderman Margaret Smith started at 7:30 and adjourned at about 8:10 p.m. - something of a record?)

Ald. Fyfe also indicated that the matter could be referred to an Ad Hoc Committee which would come up with some form of recognition for the service offered.

According to the monthly report, three city organizations have indicated they will contribute to the cost of the service by assisting with buying equipment.

The Royal Canadian Legion has committed an amount of $2,000 and the Kiwanis Club of St. Albert has earmarked $630 for the purchase of two portable resuscitator units. The St. Albert Women's Institute has donated $115 for the purchase of a resuscitator and mask.

The monthly report adds that this is a great response on the part of these community groups and they deserve appreciation.

Decorated bicycle entries please note:

Girls and boys wishing to take part in the parade on decorated bikes should report to the parade form-up area on Grandin Road at 9:15 a.m. Saturday morning and no later than 9:30. There they pick up an entry number. These entries will be pre-judged about 9:45 in the form-up area. The Kinsmen are offering a prize of $15 plus a trophy for first place and $10 for second place in the decorated bikes competition, which is for children 12 years and under.

Nurses to hold joint meeting

The St. Albert Nurses Interest Group will hold a meeting Tuesday, June 21, to allow spokespersons or the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses and representatives of the Staff Nursing Association to air their views.

It was stated in last week's Gazette that two separate meetings would be held to accommodate both groups. However, this plan has been altered, to enable local nurses to hear all points of view in the same night. The meeting will run from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. at Bertha Kennedy School.

In the report in the Gazette of June 8, it was stated that Mr. Donahue, chief executive officer for the United Nurses of Alberta, was unwilling to address a joint meeting. This report was in error, and Mr. Donahue will make a presentation at the meeting, as will Catherine Boyce, of the AARN. Local nurses are urged to attend the meeting, which will serve as an information forum.

Watch how you fish at Lacombe Park Lake

Once the Lacombe Park Lake has opened June 16 those who use it will have to observe strict rules of conduct or they could fall foul of city bylaw officers or even the RCMP.

Rules for the use of the lake point out that cleaning of fish in the park is not allowed and the limit is six fish per day a person.

The lake is primarily for the use of children. Children nine years old and under must be supervised by an adult.

Youths between the ages of nine and 17 may fish at their own risk.

Adults 18 years old and over must be accompanied by an active child or youth.

No swimming or wading is permitted in the pool which has a clay bottom.

No netting or gaffing of fish is allowed.

Fly-rod fishing is not allowed on holidays or weekends.

The city administration says that people should avoid bringing breakable bottles into the park; also no stone throwing is allowed and offenders could be prosecuted.

No boats are allowed on the lake and no wading is permitted.

Because the lake is shallow, children are advised to use a spinning rod as this is a most effective way of fishing.

The lake has been stocked with 1,000 rainbow trout, courtesy of the provincial department of Parks, Recreation and Wildlife.

Profuse Apologies

The Gazette wishes to apologize for any misunderstandings caused by part of the story in last week's Gazette headed, "49 Grade Six students centre of angry busing debate." In a section of the story on page 2 of last week's Gazette it was suggested the Department of Education might be contacted on alleged drug use at the Sir George Simpson Junior High School and the related problem of supervision.

This part of the story is out of context as no move has been reported as undertaken to bring the drug use and supervision issue to the attention of the Minister.

REFLECTS BELIECIS

The Gazette

The continually rising incidence of vandalism in urban, small town and rural areas with the corresponding rise in costs for repairing damage is bringing with it an ever stronger reaction from the general public, who are becoming more and more irate.

They are asking what can be done and why more convictions are not being obtained. Many of the offenders are young children from nine to 14 years, who must be treated as juvenile offenders. But the public will increasingly demand that whether nine years old or 18 these young people must be punished severely enough to bring vandalism under control.

Clearly increased surveillance of public parks and school areas is needed and this will be costly. Perhaps the citizens themselves will have to be drawn into the picture to work with police officers in catching the vandals in the act. This is being done in many centres across North America in the area of violent crime, often with considerable success. In one American city one woman launched a campaign in her neighbourhood to protect women against rape. The movement grew and proved so successful in reducing crimes of rape that law enforcement officers came to them to study their program.

Many people relate vandalism to a lack of discipline and one community in the area is presently replacing a school principal and credentials in discipline will be one of the criteria in hiring a new one.

Certainly society does the young vandal no service by not catching him or her and/or by not meeting out a severe punishment. Without such experience the attitude develops in young offenders that they probably won't be caught, and even if they are they'll get off easy.

But young vandals, unchecked, may well become future criminals and the end of that road is an unhappy, unfulfilled life. On the other side are the hapless victims of vandalism and crime. Everybody loses.

Perhaps an aroused public will band together with the help of elected representatives on municipal councils, school boards and police officers in a concerted attack on vandalism, which would be a step toward controlling violent crime as well.

But such programs must also be backed by the necessary effective punishment of offenders, through provincial departments of the Attorney General, and Solicitor General, and the courts themselves.

Even very young offenders must learn that they alone are responsible for their actions.

FOOTNOTE:

How far are we going to go with dehumanizing the language, or dehumanizing it? A woman could presumably be called a woperson. Some people are suggesting "hishen" to get around his or her, as in "each member is asked to bring his or her own chairs. Then we could have penpersonship and workpersonship to go along with chairperson."

MPC chairman comments on general plan

Public participation and comment from the General Plan public meetings of May 19 and 25 has been assessed by the General Plan advisory committee, and the Municipal Planning Commission. As a result of this assessment some items were added, others amended, and some reaffirmed. The following are some of the more significant points included in the final draft, which is being prepared for presentation to council.

[1] HOUSING

a) St. Albert will investigate the possibility of municipal acquisition of land, to lower or stabilize residential land costs.

b) Wherever possible, new higher density developments will be placed next to open space.

c) Future developments of multi-family housing, in new neighbourhoods, shall not be grouped in large concentrations.

d) The policy of a minimum of 80% single family, and a maximum of 20% multi-family in new neighbourhoods was reaffirmed.

It was noted that opinion on this point varied, but it was felt the policy as stated was a reasonable compromise which would receive majority support.

[2] COMMERCIAL

a) Commercial development next to residential areas will be viewed with an attempt to select development of a compatible type and scale.

[3] INDUSTRIAL

a) It was reaffirmed the municipality will where the need arises, initiate development of industrial lands so an adequate supply is available at competitive prices.

[4] TRANSPORTATION

a) Statements on inter-municipal road development have been clarified, and conform with the priorities of Alberta Transportation. Namely, development of 170 Street, 156 Street, and 137 Avenue, immediately, to provide a second paved access to West Edmonton. Development of a second major arterial (149 and 156 Streets) from Akinsdale to 137 Avenue in the short term. In the longer term, 170 Street and 184 Street southward to be connected with major east-west arterials in Edmonton.

[5] RECREATION AND CULTURE

a) Recognition of the need to formulate a detailed Facilities Plan that would compliment the less detailed General Plan.

b) The Sturgeon River Valley recreation corridor will be more clearly described.

[6] LAND USE

a) The land use map

which forms part of the General Plan has been somewhat amended. Some lands previously designated commercial or industrial are now designated Urban Reserve.

On behalf of the Municipal Planning Commission, I would like to thank all members of the public who participated in the General Plan meetings, and a special thank you is extended to the public members of the General Plan advisory committee, (Messrs. Lorne Ross, Don Pomfrey, Wm. Shields and Stu Ingram) who gave freely of their time and advice during the formulation and drafting of the General Plan.

BARRY BREADNER,
Chairman,
Municipal Planning Commission.

A closer look at the city's new recreation facilities

Since council approved the construction of a new pool and arena in St. Albert, municipal employees have been bombarded with questions from residents wanting additional information.

To familiarize residents with the benefits these new facilities will offer, a more detailed description of each may be helpful:

NEW ARENA

Location - Corner of Hebert Road and Akins Drive. The site is approximately five acres, including parking for 150 cars.

Ice Surface - regulation size, 85 feet by 200 feet.

Seating Capacity - 650 maximum, 800 to 850 with standing room.

Lobby Area - Meeting room, first aid room, washroom facilities, janitor and electrical area.

One Side - All seating with storage underneath and raised media area for broadcasting and television. Seating area to be heated through forced air system.

Opposite Side - Managers office and general office, team storage room, skate shop, four dressing rooms with showers, referee's room figure skating room, separate team storage room, mechanical rooms, resurfacing machine storage area.

Access - Four double doors will give access onto the ice from within the building.

Construction - Construction is underway with completion scheduled for the end of December, 1977.

NEW POOL

Location - Corner of Cunningham Road and Sir Winston Churchill Avenue in Fountain Park.

Change Facilities - Two

major areas (with lockers and showers) which can be divided into four areas for program versatility. Sauna facilities will be included.

Central Office - Adjacent to the change facilities will be the central office, first aid room and manager's office.

Major Pool - The pool will feature eight 25 metre lanes, with a minimum depth of three feet six inches increasing to 13 feet at the deep end.

Shallow pool - A shallow, teaching pool will be located adjacent to the major pool for the teaching of beginners and for use by the handicapped. Dimensions will be 50 feet by 20 feet.

Seating - Foldable and removable bleachers, seating a maximum of 150 people, will be located in an area protected by unbreakable glass.

Viewing Gallery - There will be a viewing gallery or corridor with glass on both sides to facilitate observation into the pool as well as the racquet courts. This corridor will lead to an area which will serve as classroom or concession or simultaneously as both.

Storage - A storage area will be provided at the end of the pool for pool accessories.

Patio - A patio area outside of the pool will be accessible from the concession area.

LOWER LEVEL

Racquet Ball-Handball - Courts - The lower level will house four racquet ball, handball courts, with glass backwalls for viewing and teaching purposes.

Change Facilities - Separate change facilities for males and females (including lockers) will be provided on the lower level for the inter-

Club.

Exercise Room - Directly below the classroom, an exercise room will be located and equipped for users.

It is hoped that the lower level will in fact develop as a Health Club and add another dimension to the City's recreational facilities.

Construction - Construction is underway with completion scheduled for the end of February, 1978.

The addition of the new pool complex and arena in our community should relieve the shortage of recreational facilities and change the complexion of recreation programming in the City of St. Albert.

Council salaries to be looked into

All aldermen were present for Committee of the Whole meeting Monday night except Alderman Rod Thronson. Mayor Dick Plain was present and Alderwoman Margaret Smith was in the chair.

Alderman Barry Breadner has suggested that the administration look into the salaries of the mayor and aldermen so that new rates could be worked out in time for the new council in November this year. Municipal elections come up in October.

Reports that the Lions Park across from the Grandin Shoppers Mall had taken a bashing at the hands of vandals surfaced at the council meeting.

There were reports that the stage wall at the back of the bandstand had been knocked in.

The reports came in the context of a question from Ald. Barry Breadner if the use of the park was being monitored.

Mayor Plain told the Gazette St. Albert will take over the maintenance of the park and the St. Albert Lions will be responsible for capital improvements.

A bylaw is likely to be prepared by St. Albert on the closure of Glenview Crescent. This road leads from the city hall annex through trees to Sir Winston Churchill Avenue.

The road is "used mostly by aldermen going home at night," (from council meetings) Alderwoman Margaret Smith observed.

Auxiliary purchases close to $10,000

The Sturgeon General Hospital Auxiliary were certainly busy this year and have proposed an expenditure of $9,660 for the following equipment for the hospital: 12 portable I.V. poles, 24 pair of side rails, two wheelchairs, two Bennett respirators, one Isolette (incubator) and one mixer (kitchen).

ALL SET FOR THE RODEO!

Youth concert series planned

A citizens committee has been formed for promoting young entertainers in the Edmonton metropolitan area who have prepared themselves so well through hard work and have so little opportunity to perform in public. St. Albert is well represented on this committee, which will sponsor Youth Concert Series.

The first of these concerts will be held Wednesday, June 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the O'Leary Centre in St. Joseph's Cathedral, when special adult guest artist will be Vladimír Džavík, opera singer from Czechoslovakia. The Our Lady of Lourdes Choir, 57 voices, who have a lot of travel and concert experience will perform, and the Choral Speech group from the school, who won the Austin O'Brien Shield at the recent Festival.

The series which will become a regular event in the fall will feature young artists who have spent a lot of time becoming first rate performers in piano, voice, choral speech and drama.

Teachers who would like their students to participate should contact Gudrin Bublitz at 458-3524.

The public is invited to attend the June 22 opening concert and there is no charge.

On Monday evening June 30 pupils of Bertha Kennedy in grades 4, 5 and 6 will give a concert for parents and friends at the school on Larose Drive, with no admission charge.

BEEHIVE OF ACTIVITY!

It's all part of our reclamation program.

Our job is supplying energy. One of our major concerns is the environment. Some people don't think the two go well together. We do! We don't believe that surface mining has to leave scars. We're proving it in the land reclamation program at our Whitewood coal mine. Originally this land was mainly unproductive muskeg. After our mining operation our researchers turned it into a green belt. Now it produces alfalfa, barley — and honey. Part of the reclaimed land is even set aside as a wildlife habitat. Land reclamation concerns our environment, so it concerns us. Write for our reclamation brochure and see for yourself. Calgary Power Ltd., Public Affairs, Box 1900, Calgary, Alberta T2P 2M1.

Grosvenor Park Pool was the scene of some friendly competition in the swimming lanes Sunday. The 'swimmers' in this photo are taking part in a race among the Kinetics, Kinsmen, Lions and Sailfish Swim Club executive. Because of the many 'irregularities' which took place during the race it was impossible to declare a clear cut and deserving winner. On the other hand the funning and clowning seemed to indicate all felt themselves winners simply by taking part in the event.

Local dancers do well in festival

St. Albert school achieved outstanding results at the Alberta Dance Festival held at the S.U.B. Theatre in Edmonton for dancing students all over Alberta. Over 2000 dancers took part in the annual event which lasts 10 days. St. Albert dancers were entered in 67 classes and the school won 31 firsts, 11 seconds and 10 third placings.

The adjudicators did an excellent job pointing out where the dancers did well, where they could improve, without discouraging them in any way from continuing. Competition was keen and the adjudicators often confessed to difficulty in assessing the winning entries.

In April exams were conducted at the St. Albert Dancing School, with examiners brought in, and the results were 67 Honours, 62 Highly Commended, 49 Commended, 25 pass plus and one pass.

Moped restrictions

A Popular teacher honoured at retirement party

The fact that Mrs. Hilda McFetridge has been an exceptionally popular teacher with students, colleagues and parents at Robert Rundle School has been no secret. She has given the scores of students who have come through her classes over 10 years there an excellent grounding in music while at the same time infecting them with a love of music. To set high standards and to achieve them through making classes interesting and enjoyable for children requires a special skill and a sincere love of children.

All of which came out at the reception held last Thursday afternoon in the school to honour Mrs. McFetridge who will be retiring this year. It was attended by parents, members of the Glee Club, former students and staff and administration members of each school in District 6, as well as personnel from the District office.

Principal of Rundle School,

Mr. Rod Thronson brought the glee club on stage to open the program and they had re-written the Rundle Song to fit the occasion, under the title "Hilda Will Shine." After their delightful performance Carla Betton presented a gardenia corsage to Mrs. McFetridge on behalf of the glee club.

HILDA McFETRIDGE

Six students from Paul Kane High showed in an original and most entertaining way how they felt about their former music teacher, presenting two popular songs, the lyrics of which they had rewritten themselves for "McFetridge." Val Pashcal, Jackie Anderson, Nancy Wah, Sheryl Forsythe and Karin Wilson were accompanied on the piano by Shawna Hite.

Hilda was presented with a beautiful silver pendant fashioned with music symbols by Mrs. D. McFarlane and Miss P. Donaldson on behalf of the staff at Robert Rundle. Mrs. Muriel Martin made a presentation on behalf of the school board, giving Mrs. McFetridge a lovely piece of china showing a figure playing a musical instrument.

As she opened her gifts with the help of a glee club member, Mrs. McFetridge most informally with evident sincerity of how much she had enjoyed her years at Rundle. "It is a great privilege" she said, "to have the opportunity to work with children - and I know of nothing more rewarding."

She joked about the ways that "bits of information" came out about the supposed "surprise" gathering, but said she certainly hadn't expected to see so many people, and how much she appreciated them coming. She spoke warmly of the co-operation and support of both the school and the board over the years, which had made her work more enjoyable, and of friendships made with her colleagues.

Principal Rod Thronson had prepared a unique report card, in which he used comments from Hilda's own report cards, fitting these into a standard Rundle report card which will make an interesting souvenir for Mrs. McFetridge. A number of other gifts were received by Mrs. McFetridge, including a bouquet of flowers from the staff at Sir George Simpson school.

A happy retirement cake was cut by the honoured guest, after which coffee and cake were served by the school staff. One came away with the feeling that the McFetridge home in St. Albert will welcome many visitors who will no longer be able to see Hilda at the school after June 30.

#533 R.C. [AIR] C. SQDN.
ST. ALBERT

By Cpl. Mike Parkin

Friday, June 10 through Sunday, June 12 saw Sabre Squadron travel to the lovely, wooded and somewhat swampy shores of Narrow Lake, to spend a weekend at Camp Wright, near Athabasca.

We departed the St. Albert Community Hall on Friday afternoon, June 10 at 5 p.m. and arrived at Camp Wright just before 7 p.m. At Camp Wright everyone was assigned to a cabin and fed, as well as having the 'iron clad' rule of Capt Martin brought down for all to hear.

Everyone just generally received a chance to get the lay of the area and familiarize themselves with the camp - proper before going to bed.

The camp patrol (C.P.) took over at midnight, making sure everyone behaved themselves and receiving the job of keeping the fires burning. At 4:30 a.m., Sgt. Bhinji drove in, behind the wheel of a sound system on wheels. At 5:30 a.m., Sgt. Bhinji, assisted by his own "Radio Uganda," as well as yours truly, Cpl. Dyer and Cpl. Maybee, woke up the entire camp to a song about Idi Amin. Cpl. Maybee provided the post-call on the trumpet as a supplement to the P.A. system.

Everyone was fed, and then moved off into their work groups. Some of the work assigned to the groups was, painting window and door trim on cabins, painting trim on the mess hall and painting the interior of the mess hall. The majority of the work was completed before lunch hour, leaving several work groups idle throughout the remainder of the weekend. Interspersed throughout the work periods were sports periods involving the playing of baseball games and tug-of-wars between work groups, as well as swimming.

The noon meal, served by the cadet cooking staff, was followed by more work and sports, although most groups remained idle, or did odd jobs.

After the sports and work during Saturday afternoon, supper was served and then the war game was organized. F/Sgt. Cady led one team and Sgt. Fecteau led the other. After the four hours allotted to the war game, F/Sgt. Cady's team was declared the winner. Needless to say, everyone was so tired that no one was rocked to sleep Saturday night.

On Sunday morning, we were awakened by Officer Cadet Barton, because all of the people on C.D. were asleep. A bit of work followed breakfast and then it was declared open season to throw officers and NCO's in the water. Amongst the lucky people to encounter the cold, clear waters of Narrow Lake were, Lieutenant Maybee, Warrant Officer Armstrong, Yours Truly, Cpl. Dyer and others too numerous to mention. This little episode was followed by an excellent cold plate type of lunch and a drying out period.

At 1:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon, the buses were loaded and we departed Camp Wright, no worse for wear, but tired.

The camp was very well enjoyed, but one phenomenon still has one wondering. How did the cooks manage to burn the bottoms of the fried eggs and leave the top of the eggs raw?

This Thursday evening, June 16, the squadron will hold a sports night and barbecue at Lion's Park. There will be organized baseball, some horseshoes and barbecued hot dogs provided for the enjoyment of all cadets.

On Saturday morning, June 18, the entire squadron will be marching in the St. Albert Kinsmen Rodeo Parade, including the band and colour party.

The following weekend, the band and colour party will take part in the Morinville Frontier Daze parade, followed by a reception of sorts at F/Sgt. Davies place, open to those whom are invited.

That will about wrap up 533's activities for the year except for summer camps and scholarships.

Recreation program in Mill Woods

A summer recreation program, sponsored by the Young Canada Works Program, is making it possible for students at Mill Woods Campus, Grant MacEwan

Community College to offer recreational activities this summer, at no charge, to the residents of Mill Woods.

Mill Woods is a rapidly expanding suburb of Edmonton with limited recreational facilities. The Mill Woods Campus of Grant MacEwan Community College, housing physical education facilities, will be used extensively as well as facilities in neighbouring communities.

The program, to be offered during July and August, will be co-ordinated by students with a variety of backgrounds in recreational programming. It is intended to offer the residents of Mill Woods a varied selection of recreational activities for the summer months.

During the month of June, program details will be finalized. The proposed program areas include a Day

Youth Program designed for the youth of the community who will not be employed during the summer months;

a Day Adult program, designed as a special interest program for the adults of the community who have a limited amount of leisure time; a Special Interest Group and an Evening Adult Program.

Suzuki method founder to visit U of A

The originator of the Suzuki Method will be at the University of Alberta June 18-21.

Dr. Shinichi Suzuki, who teaches children to learn music the way they learn their mother tongue, that is, through listening and imitating, will be on campus for an international workshop for strings and a corresponding public concert.

He will be accompanied by Yoshio Sato, a colleague who adapted the Suzuki Method for the cello, and a number of young pupils.

The Suzuki Method entails the scaling down in size of violins and cellos to the extent that children three or four years of age can start learning to play them.

Rather than striving to turn out prodigies, the Method attempts to encourage children to develop a sense of music appreciation which can grow over the years.

Although the workshop is a closed affair, the concert on Saturday, June 18, at 2 p.m. in the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium will provide the public with the opportunity to hear group performances by all children in the workshop as well as young soloists from Japan and Edmonton and the Edmonton Youth Orchestra.

The purpose of history

It has been suggested many times that the study of history is of little use. The answer is nicely given in a story in which a professor was once asked by a doubting student "what's the use of history?" to which the reply came "do you know what happens to people who lose their memory?"

New program improves reading, language skills

When it was discovered by the Vermilion Catholic School District in 1973 that 198 students out of 653 were below their grade level in reading and language arts, it was decided that something should be done.

To remedy the situation, a program was undertaken, that was intended to improve reading and language skills of below average elementary pupils. It was hoped that the pupils' interaction in the classroom would be increased by emphasizing a listening and speaking approach. The program aimed at helping to identify students with learning problems, and improving the attitude of below average pupils toward reading. It was also hoped that existing language texts could be replaced by a more suitable series.

In order to change the emphasis in instruction, to bring about greater student participation, a number of steps were taken. Aides were hired to assist children in independent study, and to assist in classroom supervision while teachers concentrated on individuals and small groups. The aides would assist with oral reading and story telling, and administer remedial drill work. They also freed the teacher for more instructional time by assuming various housekeeping and clerical duties.

Under the new program, more emphasis was placed on word attack and comprehension skills. Learning disabled pupils were identified and referred to a psychologist for diagnosis. In-service training was provided to help teachers select materials for the learning disabled child.

At St. Martin's School in Vegreville, the half-time EOF teacher had two groups of five pupils each morning for a 40 minute individualized program of language arts remediation. Exercises are planned to increase comprehension, word attack skills, pronunciation and spelling. Daily scores are kept and a feeling of competition runs high.

FIRST YEAR EVALUATION

After the program's first year, an evaluation was made. The consultants employed recommended narrowing the program to involve only students with average potential but with specific identified problems. They also advised a more sophisticated diagnosis of pupils entering the program, and greater co-ordination between regular and EOF teachers. They also felt there should be closer co-ordination between the Learning Disability Fund and the EOF programs. The program was adjusted accordingly.

The most recent evaluation was conducted by each school. It was found by teachers and administrators that reading and language skills had improved, pupils with learning disabilities had been identified, and attitudes of below average pupils toward reading had improved. The interaction of pupils and the development of listening and discussion skills had increased. More suitable language texts were being used in two of the schools.

In five out of six schools, teachers and administrators felt there should be more co-ordination with regular classroom teachers, more time in the program for individual students, and that math remediation should be included. It was noted that there was increased understanding amongst parents of the school's aims. The pupils' images of their teachers and of themselves was more positive.

Adult learn to ride

tacking a horse and care and cleaning of tack.

For those who wish to become more accomplished there is an additional course, Recreational Riding 11, which is a sequel to the Recreational Riding 1 course.

Seven sections of Recreational Riding 1 will be offered as follows: weekdays July 4-8, July 11-15, July 18-22; weekends June 24-26, July 1-3, July 8-10 and July 22-24.

Recreational Riding 11 course dates are July 25-29 and July 29-31.

Koziak releases Northern Alberta Education Report

A report reviewing educational needs in Northern Alberta was released recently by Department of Education Minister Julian Koziak. Mr. Koziak also announced that the department will recruit a project co-ordinator for the Education North project.

The report, completed by a task force co-ordinated by Mr. Fred Dumont of High Prairie, reviewed education program changes that were deemed desirable by residents north of Highway 16. An earlier outcome of this task force was the Wahlstrom Report on teacher housing and teacher location allowances.

The Education North Project is the first phase of developing curriculum and school community activities to improve education in Northern Alberta. The project qualifies for joint funding under the agreement between Alberta and the Canada Department of Regional Economic Expansion (DREE).

Advertisements for the position of project co-ordinator are expected to appear shortly.

Backpacking course builds confidence

Many people have the desire to shoulder their packs and strike out into the wilderness, but lack the confidence to do so.

This summer Grant MacEwan Community College will offer a course for this reason. It is called simply a "1-Week Backpacking Tri-ip." This course is designed to help participants gain the ability to plan their own outing. Each student will participate in the planning and organization of the trip -- choosing the location, finding routes, planning food, etc.

The course will include three evenings, July 11, 18, 25, a one day hike on July 24, and one week, July 30 - August 6. Participants will be expected to supply their own equipment and all trip expenses will be shared among group members, e.g. transportation and food.

Participants on the 1-Week Backpacking Trip must have taken the course "Introduction to Backpacking" or have some previous experience. Participants must also be in good health and at least 16 years of age.

For a registration form or for further information on this course or on the Introduction to Backpacking, please call the Continuing Education Division at Grant MacEwan Community College at 462-2680.

June elect bride honoured

Mrs. Margaret Jordan entertained at her Viscount Estate home on Thursday, May 26 in honour of Dulcie Page, a June bride-elect. The co-hostess, Mrs. Mary Huberdeau, was unable to attend, due to illness.

Pink and white streamers, pink bells and a decorated umbrella added to the bridal motif. A miniature bridal party, made by the groom elect's mother, Mrs. Lily Webb, graced the coffee table.

Invited friends, relatives and neighbours enjoyed contests during the evening.

The bride-elect was assisted in opening her gifts by her sister Dorianne Page. Many beautiful gifts were received, after which Dulcie graciously thanked all the guests.

A tasty experience at Fortune Village restaurant

By B. R. Coles
After hearing that the Fortune Village Restaurant had recently hired six cooks straight from Hong Kong, I felt it was time to return and sample their culinary talents.

My friend and I arrived around six o'clock, and were promptly seated in the brightly lit dining room. There were very few patrons at that time, and our waitress immediately took our order, two combination plates. We had no sooner finished our pre-supper cigarettes, when the steaming plates were laid in front of us.

For being a very basic part of the Fortune Village's menu, both plates were prime examples of good Oriental cuisine. The ingredients of the chop suey were so fresh we wondered if they hadn't just been picked from a garden somewhere behind the restaurant. Included in the plate were sweet and sour ribs, fried rice, an egg roll, deep fried shrimp and pineapple chicken balls all for $4.95.

Following the meal, I talked with Don Chueng and Arthur Eng, managers of the restaurant, who informed me that they are again changing the appearance of the spacious banquet and dining rooms, with renovations hopefully completed by July 1. They will remain open during the remodelling. In keeping with the changes, Mr. Chueng informed me that on Saturday, June 18, they will unfold a new menu for a Chinese Brunch, which runs from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Saturday, Sunday and holiday. Featured on the menu will be Chinese dumplings, Chinese pyrogies, Chinese pastries and many special Mandarin dishes.

If it is any indication, as we were leaving we noticed that there were a number of Oriental families, chopsticks in hand, eating some of the more exotic dishes.

please claim them before the end of June. We will be donating any items remaining at the pool to a charitable cause at the first of July.

The pool will be closed on June 26 until 6 p.m. due to the St. Albert Invitational Swim Meet. If the meet ends earlier we will open accordingly.

Mother - daughter banquet held

On Tuesday night, mothers and daughters in the St. Albert Brownies and Guides gathered at the St. Albert Catholic Church for their annual banquet. About 200 were present, as emcee Barrie Brown got the proceedings underway.

After some singing and dinner, the brownies made a toast to the mothers, and Marg Smith responded on behalf of the mothers. Badges were presented to Brownies and Guides, and Commissioner Mrs. C. Jeffares presented Charlene Muir with her All Round Cord.

Pat Corbett was presented with a cheque for the Camping Commission from the Brownies and Guides Local Association. A set of coasters with the brownie and guide motif was presented to Jeanette Muir and to Barrie Brown, in recognition of long standing service.

A film, "A Walk in the Forest" was shown, followed by singing. The Rangers graciously volunteered to do the dishes.

St. Albert Scouts bound for P.E.I.

When 16,000 Scouts, Venturers and leaders from all across Canada meet in Prince Edward Island this summer, 47 St. Albert boys will be among them. The boys and their leaders will head out for the first Canadian Jamboree in 16 years, at Cabot Park, P.E.I. for eight days, July 2 - 11. The CJ 77 will be the biggest single scouting activity ever staged in this country.

The local delegation to the event will consist of six scouts from the 1st St. Albert Scout Troop with their leader Romeo Ethier, and from the same troop, seven scouts will go accompanied by leader Emile Cote. Ray Evans will take nine scouts from the 3rd St. Albert Scouts, and nine scouts from that troop will go with leader Barry Lesenko. Leader Peter Van Hogeand will accompany five scouts from the 4th St. Albert Scouts. Leo Brouseker will be going with four Venturers from the 1st St. Albert troop, and Bob McKay will accompany seven Venturers from the 3rd troop. Four boys from Fort McMurray will join the St. Albert group.

The boys have had to raise $350 each for the trip, to cover the cost of their return airfare and their food. Each Jamboree participant will live for eight days with just the equipment they can carry on his back. He will live out of the back-pack, sleep in a two-man tent and cook his meals in a small, single burner stove.

The tent city being created in P.E.I. will be the second largest 'city' on the island. Charlottetown has 16,500 people. CJ City will have all the facilities found in any city of similar size. It will have a fully equipped hospital, a fire department, a water works system, stores, banks and a post office. The whole city will go up in just two days and will have disappeared completely by July 15.

Planning for this national event has taken over two years. Almost 1,200 Albertans will attend.

Concerning Women Of Today's World

Jean Begley writes:

By Jean Begley
Thank you for your letters and telephone calls. Here are some replies to the first problems sent me:

Ques. I am 20 years old and have a rather damp, greasy skin on my forehead, nose and around my mouth and chin, but my cheeks and neck are fine. I have been told when a teen-ager, that the problem would clear up as I got older, but it has so far remained just as troublesome as before. Could you suggest a remedy?

Ans. You have what is known as combination skin on your face and neck. This is a well known type and if treated correctly will cause no problems, but if neglected, could become unsightly in later years.

You should when washing, damp the greasy 'panel' down the middle of your face with very clean, warm water, then dab a little moistened soap on this area, making sure it does not touch the dry cheeks. Rinse off all the face with fresh, clean water. Pat dry with a clean towel and apply some Witch Hazel Lotion, using a small piece of cotton wool or a tissue, to the greasy panel. Again, do not let the Lotion touch the dry cheeks and neck, but apply 'moisturizing' lotion there. You will have to continue this treatment for some weeks before the resulting benefit will appear.

Ques. I am nearly 16 years and love my boyfriend dearly and I think he loves me. My worry is that when we are out together, he never takes any notice of me, but talks and laughs with other girls all the time. When we are alone he 'pets' me a lot. How can I make him pay more attention to me when we are with 'the gang'? (Ann.)

Ans. Your problem, Ann, is that you are concentrating too much on your boyfriend. His actions show that he does not wish to 'go steady,' but he still enjoys having you for himself when you are alone together. This is rather selfish and it is up to you to settle this problem. Do not give him so much time alone; stay with your friends more and let him come to you. Don't be available every time he wants to see you alone. Remember that in life, anything got too easily is seldom appreciated.

Ques. Would you think that if I used 'four letter' words and slang, it would make me more popular? I don't do this but many of my friends do. (Susie)

Ans. Today, slang is readily accepted in conversation, it's a way of 'doing our own thing.' So express yourself this way if it will make you feel free, but avoid the habit of using foul language. It will only coarsen your outlook on life and will do nothing to enhance your personality and charm. You will find that though many men use strong language themselves, they do not like to hear a girl or woman they wish to respect, do this.

Ques. Would you please settle an argument for my husband and I? He says that he should lead the way up the aisle of the Church to find our seats, but I say it should be 'ladies first.' Who is correct?

Ans. Your husband is right. He goes ahead up the aisle, leading the way for you and your family, finds seats for all of you then stands aside to let you seat yourselves and takes the outside seat himself. When leaving your seats, he will step out first then stand aside to let you and the family proceed down the aisle and he will follow behind.

Veterinarians wives give commemorative book to library

Recently the Ladies Auxiliary to the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association commemorated its 25th year in the province. To mark this occasion locally, Mrs. M. Raspberry, wife of Dr. M. E.

Raspberry presented the St. Albert Public Library with a copy of the book "Veterinarians of the Northwest Territories and Alberta" by Dr. B. I. Love. The book was accepted by Librarian Effie Nelson.

The book is a history of veterinary medicine and the veterinarians of Alberta and the Northwest Territories from 1860-1955. The book was the Centennial project of the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association in 1967.

The author, Dr. B. I. Love, practised in Alberta for 46 years. Originally from Ontario, a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College in 1915, he came to Lamont, Alberta in 1920. He later practised in Vegreville and Edmonton and served as superintendent of Elk Island National Park from 1936 to 1959. Upon leaving this post, he returned to Edmonton as an equine practitioner in 1959 until his death in 1967.

During World War I, Dr. Love served as a Captain in the Imperial Veterinary Corps. While at Elk Island National Park, he became a pioneer in Wildlife medicine. He was a major in the militia from 1921-42.

Dr. Love was active in the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association and the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association. His wife, Mrs. F. Love, helped with the book and still resides in Edmonton. She is an honorary life member of the Ladies Auxiliary.

On St. Patrick's Day Mrs. Mary Van Tighem celebrated her 95th birthday, and now it's her brother's turn. Ed Juneau will be 100 years old on June 10, and with him in Victoria to celebrate will be several St. Albert residents, John Van Tighem and Armand Savoie accompanied by their wives, and Mary. Mary, at left, is seen here with Mrs. Lafleur at the Seniors Centre with her St. Patrick's birthday cake.

The new rent decontrol regulations make interesting reading

The new Rent Decontrol Act establishes a system for phasing out rent controls in Alberta. This Act becomes effective July 1st, 1977, and ends June 30, 1980.

The Act applies only to residential premises rented at any time during 1975.

1977 INCREASES

In 1977, a landlord may increase the rent by not more than 9% of the December 31, 1976 rent. The landlord may, however, apply to the Rent Decontrol Board for a further increase if additional costs justify it.

BASE RENT

Base rent is the permitted or approved rent charged on June 30, 1977 or, if the residential premises were not rented on June 30, 1977, the rent charged when the premises were last rented.

EVICTON

A tenant may not be evicted because of a complaint to a Rent Regulation Officer or because of a refusal to pay an illegal rent increase.

RENT DECONTROL

If the "base rent", plus any allowable increases, exceeds a specified level after July 1, 1977, the residential premises will be exempt from the Rent Decontrol Act on January 1, 1978 (or six months after this level has been reached, whichever comes later).

These levels are $375 per month on residential premises with 3 or more bedrooms, $325 with 2 bedrooms and $275 with less than two bedrooms.

MOBILE HOME PARKS

In the case of a mobile home park, consisting of 5 or more sites, where the landlord wishes to terminate a tenancy, or tenancies, and when the main reason for doing so is to use the site/s for purposes other than for mobile home sites, the landlord must give the tenant/s one year's notice of termination of tenancy.

If you don't understand this New Act, or if you're involved in a landlord-tenant dispute that you and your landlord together can't resolve, then contact us at your nearest Rent Decontrol Office:

Youngsters give string concert at Jubilee Auditorium

The Jubilee Auditorium will be the scene of an unusual concert on Saturday, June 18, when 300 youngsters trained in the Suzuki Method will stage a string concert.

The concert will feature selections by Bach, Bruch, Saint-Saens, Handel, Wienawski and others. Soloists will range in age from 7-16, while the whole group of string players is aged three years and up.

Several St. Albert families will be performing at the concert. The children of Marshall Luchkow, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Beaussart, Mr. and Mrs. Pulos, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Elsler and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Halmos will all be participating.

The reason string instruments were chosen was that violins and cellos can be scaled down to a fraction of their normal size, making it possible for children to start learning to play at age three-four, which is highly desirable in this method.

The Suzuki Method was developed by Shinichi Suzuki in Japan, and was brought to Western Canada in 1965 by Professor Thomas Rolston of the University of Alberta Department of Music. It is a non-competitive, emulative method, based on the premise that just as any child can learn its mother tongue by listening and imitating, it can also learn music. The method does not aim at developing prodigies, but to nurture the ability in each human being to appreciate and love music.

Theatre 3's "La Ronde" is for mature audiences

Theatre 3 Artistic Director Mark Schoenberg recommends the upcoming production of Arthur Schnitzler's comedy La Ronde for mature audiences only. La Ronde runs June 14 through 25.

Schoenberg says the play has been given a sexually explicit staging, and made the following statement:

"Sex in our 70's and sex in the 1890's - Viennese sex anyway - as seen through the eyes of playwright Arthur Schnitzler, don't seem to be very different animals. It would be difficult to expect our sophisticated, modern 70's audience to accept a play about seduction - graphic seduction - even graphic 1890's seduction - without some semblance of tasteful reality."

"The key word here is tasteful. And we hope that our audience is going to find La Ronde's sex and nudity elegant and funny."

La Ronde is a hilarious ode to the fine and funny art of seduction written by the Austrian playwright Schnitzler at the turn-of-the-century. The production is directed by Mark Schoenberg, designed by Terry Gunvordahl, and stars four of Edmonton's finest actors: Susan Andre, Richard Gishler, Judith Mabey, and Michael Murdock. Stage manager is Randy Maertz.

Tickets for La Ronde are now on sale at all Bay Box Offices or at the Theatre 3 box-office at 426-6870. Curtain time is 8 p.m. nightly, Sunday at 2 and 7:30 p.m. There is no performance Monday.

Susan Andre and Michael Murdock enact one of many funny, fevered embraces in Theatre 3's production of "La Ronde."

La Ronde: A good giggle

By Vicky Knight

Upon reading in the program that Theatre 3's "La Ronde" would be staged in a sexually explicit manner, I began to feel uneasy. Was my meagre supply of "cool" up to it? Would the torrid writhings on the stage bring a gauche flush to my face? Or worse still, would I be overwhelmed by it all, forced to flee the theatre with downcast eyes?

I needn't have worried. Despite its nude scenes and simulated sex, the prevailing mood of "La Ronde" is not one of steamy, seamy sexuality. Rather, it has an irreverent innocence which lightly mocks man's sexual foibles.

Arthur Schnitzler wrote the play in 1897, although it did not clear the censors until 1903, when it was considered highly scandalous. In a series of dialogues, it dissects the sexual vagaries of turn-of-the-century Viennese bourgeois. Each relationship am-usingly points out the slightly ludicrous nature of lust when unadorned by romance. Although the participants make brave attempts to ennoble their bawdy pursuits by declarations of love, the nature of their trysts remains -- fatuous fondlings, comic couplings.

All of this might lack a certain charm were it not for the appeal of the characters and the actors portraying them. Judith Maybe, Michael Murdock, Susan Andre and Richard Gishler romp through the production with droll wit, sharply directed by Marl Schoenberg. Visually, the production is funny and appealing. However, to reveal the set would reduce its comic impact.

One might wonder at the decision to stage a play about sex written in 1897 in these liberated times. The reason might be found in a line in the play, where the husband states pompously that whores are attracted to the company of gentlewomen out of "nostalgia for lost virtue." Perhaps the appeal of this play in the 1970's lies in nostalgia for times when virtue could be lost!

This month at the Edmonton Library

The Edmonton Art Gallery Extension is presenting an exhibition of works by Edmonton artist Violet Owen in the Foyer Gallery of the Central Library during the month of June. The show will include drawings and recent paintings on plexiglas which trace her evolution as a figurative artist from tonal and linear studies of form to the new, colorful paintings. The exhibit will remain on display until June 30.

Featured in the Photography Gallery on the second floor of the Central Library in June, will be the work of Quebec artist, Robert Stanley Adams. The exhibition will include photographs taken from his barber shops of Edmonton series as well as those taken from a series of Montreal pool halls.

The exhibit will remain on display until June 30.

A donation of a sculpture was recently made to the Central Library by the Garipey family of Edmonton. The gift is in honor of their father, Charles Edouard Garipey who was formerly a school trustee, city alderman and Judge of the District Court in Edmonton.

The sculpture, "Wedge Form," was created by artist Charles Hilton, a nationally known Edmonton sculptor and potter.

The Garipey family are well known for their patronage of the arts in Edmonton area and are quite active in the local arts scene.

Pierre Garipey made the presentation on behalf of his family. Accepting the donation on behalf of the Library were S. E. McVittie, chairman of the Library Board, and Vincent Richards, director of Libraries.

The sculpture is now on permanent display on the main floor of the Central Library.

Appearing in the Music Room of the Central Edmonton Public Library on June 19 at 2:30 p.m. is the Edmonton Saxophone Quartet. The group includes Marvin Eckroth, soprano sax.; Dennis Prime, alto sax.; Laurelie Nattress, tenor sax.; and Gordon Brock, baritone sax.

Featured in the program will be works from Jenkins-Grainger, Pierre, Jacob Frankenhof, Absil, and Desenclos.

Admission is free and everyone is welcome.

On June 18, at Paul Kane High School, the theatre group will stage the play "Buckskin and Chaperos" by Paddy Campbell. There will be two showings, at 1 and 3 p.m.

Rose Bene has directed the melodrama, which is reported to be entertaining to adults as well as children.

Search is on for former PK grads

Former Paul Kane students are in the process of organizing a school reunion for Thanksgiving weekend this October, and their main concern at this stage is getting in touch with as many as possible graduates of Paul Kane over the years from 1964, when the school opened, to 1971.

Committee members are also hoping that they will be able to reach as many as possible of the teachers during those years to have them join the celebration, said Wrennie (Ryley) Refshauge.

A mailing committee has been set up to do the tracking down of former students and teachers and the members would greatly appreciate the help of any St. Albert residents who know where some of these former students are at present. The information should be given to the committee at Paul Kane school. Mr. Dave Geddes is the staff advisor to the re-union committee.

The committee is hoping to keep the costs down to around $25 per couple and a registration fee has been set of $5 per person, which should be mailed to the Paul Kane Reunion Fund, Paul Kane High School.

Anyone who can help the committee out is requested to let them know as soon as possible on the whereabouts of former students, and such assistance will be warmly appreciated.

Around Town

Lawrence and Claudia Gaulin are having a holiday visit in St. Albert area, spending some time with their daughter in Edmonton and son in Leduc, plus renewing acquaintance with many friends in St. Albert. After 18 years in the St. Albert garage on Perron street the Gaulins left in 1971 to make their home in Surrey, B.C. and just recently sold their home and bought an apartment there. They drove the Yellowhead route and are staying at the Pam-Am motel while making their rounds.

Parsonally Speaking

Pastor B. L. Heath
First Baptist Church

He is altogether lovely.
Song of Solomon 5:16

The following epistle is said to have been taken by Napoleon from the records of Rome when he deprived that city of so many valuable manuscripts. It was by

Publius Lentulus, Governor of Judea, to the Senate of Rome, Caesar, Emperor: "Conscript Fathers: In these our days appeared a man named Jesus Christ, who is yet living among us, and of the Gentiles is accepted as a prophet of great truth; but his own disciples call him the Son of God. He hath raised the dead and cured all manner of diseases. He is a man of stature somewhat tall and comely, with a ruddy countenance such as the beholder may both love and fear. His hair is the color of a filbert when fully ripe, plain to his ear, whence downward it is more of orient color, curling and waving on his shoulders, after the manner of Nazarites. His forehead is plain and delicate; the face without spot or wrinkle, beautiful with a comely red; his nose and mouth are exactly formed; his beard is the color of his hair and thick, not of any length but forked.

"In reproving, he is terrible; in admonishing, courteous; in speaking, very modest and wise; in proportion of body, well-shaped. None have seen him laugh; many have seen him weep. A man for his surpassing beauty excelling the children of men.

Creative playground is family project

The creative playground at Ronald Harvey school is forging ahead, and is providing a unifying and educational experience for those participating. Gary Frost and Richard Whitehouse, members of the Langley Park Creative Playground Society told members of the Interclub Council Sunday that the playground is a family project and has done much to develop a spirit of community amongst those taking part.

Mr. Frost and Mr. Whitehouse told the group that the Kinsmen and Kiwanis Clubs had committed themselves to building one play structure each, and that they would welcome a similar commitment from other organizations.

The playground society is also still looking for materials for building the various structures. Numerous items have already been obtained including 2200 logs, bought from the provincial government, a T33 aircraft and a tunnel system donated by Northwest Industries. Calgary Power has donated material, and Canada Wire gave cable spools. R. Angus has given heavy equipment tires.

The society is keeping track of the steps involved in the development of the playground, and a written account of the steps taken is available for other areas considering such a project. Westlock has already expressed interest.

Both Mr. Frost and Mr. Whitehouse emphasized that the playground is not an isolated project for Lacombe Park residents, but is instead a project for the whole community of St. Albert. Whole families have participated, and the project has been designed so that children have input at all levels, from design to construction. It was pointed out that in a community growing at the rapid rate that St. Albert is experiencing, community spirit often lags behind and such a project enhances the feeling of community.

The playground society is working from a $10,000 budget, $3,000 of which came from the town, $4,000 from the Kinsmen Club, and $3,000 which has been raised by the Society in the community. The society's next fund raising event will be a "Tacky Ball" to be held in August at the Community Hall.

The members of the society hope that the playground might be complete at the end of June, but the final date is flexible. Work parties are being held each Saturday and Wednesday, and St. Albert residents are encouraged to lend a hand.

THE CITY OF St. Albert PLANNING SERVICES

PUBLIC NOTICE

Pursuant to Sections 129 to 134 of the Planning Act, R.S.A. 1970, please be advised that the Council of the City of St. Albert proposes to pass Bylaw No. 28/77, being a bylaw to adopt a General Plan to guide the future development of this community.

The map below indicates the area affected by the Plan and illustrates the general land uses proposed for the Plan area:

Chairman cultural co-operative committee

By Florence Lefebvre

June 6, 1977, marked the election of the fourth executive of the "Cercle Franco-phonie de Saint Albert," formerly the French Social Club. On the same evening the charter which has been formulated through the past year in three phases was approved and the "Cercle" will shortly become a society.

The Francophones of the City of Saint Albert now have a distinct organization and have made tremendous strides since their first meeting on December 13, 1973. Historically the founding race of Saint Albert, along with the Metis pioneers, the French-Canadian community has once more come into its own - claiming more than 40 members and joining other groups of our city with pride in themselves and great hope for the future. The Saint Albert Cultural Co-operative Committee is proud of the part it played in forming this very important entity, having set up and chairing the first meetings until the first elections in the spring of 1974.

Chairing this June meeting was Mrs. Laurier Regimbald, in whose home the first meeting took place.

Since that time the chairpersons elected were: Guy Journoud, Madame Guy Journoud, Claude Cool, who resigned last April due to illness.

Elected Monday evening was Victor Douzich, chairman; Mme. Denise Hebert, first vice-chairman; Mme. Therese Regimbald, second vice-chairman; Mme. Lucienne Brisson, secretary; Mme. Rose Desrosiers, treasurer.

All Francophones should take pride in this very necessary and vibrant organization which sprang up because of a mounting need and a welcomed burst of individual pride in their identity as having an important role to play in the future of Saint Albert.

The Cultural Co-operative Committee wishes to congratulate the present and past executive members and the members of the "Cercle Franco-phonie de Saint Albert" for their tenacity in proving that they believe in themselves and believe also in their importance within the community of the City of Saint Albert, the Province of Alberta, and our country, Canada.

THANK YOU

A special thanks to friends and neighbours of St. Albert, Royal Canadian Legion 271, the Ladies Auxiliary, and Grade 6 class of Sir George Simpson School, Rev. Leonard Musto and staff and doctors of the Sturgeon General Hospital, for all their help and sympathies during our bereavement.

ART ROBINSON AND FAMILY,
19 GILLIAN CRES.

The proposed Bylaw No. 28/77, together with the General Plan and a more detailed land use map, may be examined between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays in the Planning Services Section in the City Hall, St. Albert.

A public hearing on the proposed bylaw will be held in the Council Chambers, City Hall Annex, on Wednesday, June 22, 1977, at 7:30 p.m. The Plan text and land use map are subject to amendment up until third reading is given to this bylaw.

Written submissions may be presented at the office of the Municipal Secretary, City Hall, until 12:00 Noon on Friday, June 17, 1977, by any person whose interests may be affected by any provision of the proposed bylaw. Persons wishing to make oral representation may do so by appearing at the public hearing.

His latest creation is tailor-made for a business operation.

It's modern, unique, and suits his customers perfectly. It could even improve business for them!

This man is an AGT design engineer — and he's just created a communications system for one of our business customers.

The materials he works with are data transmission equipment, closed circuit television installations, switchboard and paging systems, digital and DDD transmission networks.

He puts them together in a design that's compatible with a company's requirements. A design that won't become outmoded in one season, but will meet a company's communications needs in the future.

His profession is relatively new. A quarter of a century ago, teletype machines were virtually the only business communications equipment on the market. Today we employ almost two hundred engineers who work with a vast array of complex communications equipment.

Keeping pace with Alberta businesses has become a greater challenge as they expand their service, extend their market area and require more sophisticated communications systems. But it's a challenge we'll continue to meet — to keep Alberta business communications up-to-date on the local, national and international scenes.

Keeping up with Alberta's growth — an ongoing challenge for all of us at

Father Roy says goodbye

After nearly three years of serving St. Albert Parish, Father Al Roy, is leaving for the west coast to serve a parish and school there. Father Roy leaves St.

Albert July 2 for Vancouver. After a short holiday he will take up new duties as pastor of the Our Lady of Fatima parish in Coquitlam. Father Roy will also look after the parochial school as its administrator. The school caters for students in grades one to nine.

Father Roy was born in 1936 in Morinville and ordained priest 1962 in Edmonton.

He attended seminary at Lebreton in Saskatchewan's Qu'Appelle Valley.

At an informal luncheon of the St. Albert Ministerial Association in the Elim Chapel last Monday afternoon, Father Roy said that St. Albert had been an exciting parish for him. He pointed out that it was the first time he had been involved in parochial work. Previously his experience had been in counselling and teaching.

He said that when he first got to the parish, he had to relieve Father Jake Joly, and "I really had to jump into it."

Father Roy complimented the people of St. Albert. "I really felt at home here after two weeks," he commented.

He said he found the community of St. Albert really outstanding, "they accepted you so well."

Father Roy received many compliments in the Elim Chapel basement from other priests and clergy attending. They told Father Roy that he had really helped to foster the good relations now prevalent between the Catholic church in St. Albert and the other parishes. Father Roy was complimented on the "freshness of his approach." At the luncheon were

Campers anticipate United Church summer camp

Holidays are approaching quickly and many children's thoughts are wandering to summer camping. Surprise Lake Camp provides a perfect setting for such an outdoor experience for children and parents who wish to get away from it all and who like the wilderness and the beauty of nature.

Surprise Lake Camp is one of 12 United Church Camps in this province. It is located on a small secluded lake 120 miles west of Edmonton on Highway 16 and offers a semi-wilderness experience for campers in Grades 4-12.

The program of the Camp includes swimming, boating, cookouts, crafts and out-tripping. The camp is primarily staffed by trained volunteers many of whom are parents; children of the staff too young to be campers enjoy all the activities in a program suited to their needs and capabilities. These youngsters are carefully supervised by staff children counsellors.

The camp dates for this year are: Junior High, July 8-17 and a special out-tripping camp August 7-13; Junior July 17-24, July 24-31, and July 31-August 7. This high school out-tripping is for grades 9-12 on July 8-17.

Of special interest to youths in Grades 9-12 is the backpacking trip which will be based in Jasper. Carol and Dave Otto of St. Albert will be directing this camp again this year. Further information regarding this out-trip can be obtained by phoning the Ottos at 459-4926 or writing them at 4 Grosvenor Blvd., St. Albert.

Any persons wishing further information pertaining to this summer's camping or wishing to work as a volunteer for one camp please contact Kathy Fisher, 436-9434, 2727-117 Street, Edmonton or Vivian Dick, 439-0743, 9213-99 Street, Edmonton.

Around Town

It is rumoured that Gazette Impressario Robert Coles will make a special appearance on the Gazette float on June 18, in answer to fervent pleas from his deranged fans. Mr. Coles, we hear, will parade the streets clad only in a rhinestone studded athletic supporter with a tasteful smattering of sequins. For the kiddies, Big Bob will have a supply of candies tucked away in his silver lame clutch bag. Hell hath no fury like the Gazette girls scorned, eh Bob?

Cream of Canadian Rodeo stars at rodeo

In search of Canadian and world titles, the cream of Canadian rodeo athletes also will be competing for the prestigious Belvedere King Size Rodeo Awards at the St. Albert Kinsmen Rodeo, June 17-19.

These awards, sponsored by Benson and Hedges Tobacco Company, offer $30,000 in cash bonuses to the top cowboys and cowgirls in rodeos sanctioned by the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association.

The awards are presented to the top three leaders at the end of the first and second halves of the season in saddle bronc, bareback, bull riding, calf roping, steer wrestling, chuckwagon racing and ladies' barrel racing events. In addition, the top three in the All-Around Cowboy category and the champions in wild horse racing and wild cow milking are honored at the conclusion of the tour.

Winners also receive beautiful bronze sculptures, handcrafted by well-known artist Corne Martins, with bronze medallions to the runners-up.

The awards are made on the basis of points accumulated at sanctioned rodeos such as the Coronation event.

"This is the third year Belvedere Cigarettes have been associated with Canadian rodeo and we're amazed at the tremendous growth and popularity of the sport," says Ken McBrine, of Edmonton, Western Canada sales co-ordinator for Benson and Hedges.

"We feel this is a good example of how a corporation can contribute through sponsorship in helping to provide entertainment of a high professional calibre to the communities in which we live and work."

If you're looking for superlatives to describe the sport of rodeo, a good place to start would be Tom Bews. Perhaps the best way to describe him is, Tom Bews won the Guy Weadick Memorial Award at the 1975 Calgary Exhibition and Stampede.

The award, in memory of Guy Weadick, the founder of the Calgary Stampede, is presented annually to the cowboy combining not only ability, but personality and appearance. And that does say something about Bews.

With Canadian all around titles in 1966, 1971 and 1973, as well as Canadian championships in both steer wrestling and saddle bronc in 1971, it is no surprise that Bews is again on top, winning the Belvedere first half award in saddle bronc.

A member of the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys' Association since 1964, he has never been far from the top. His earnings for the first half this year are almost identical to his total earnings for last year, indicating what kind of a season he is having. So far this year, a good number of fans have watched him tip his hat after a successful ride.

Aside from being a competitor, Tom Bews is also a major supporter of the sport of rodeo and has served as an ambassador by bringing rodeo to Zambia. He was also the CRCA Vice-President for 1973 and 1974.

Describing himself as a family man, Bews prefers to stay in Canada, close to his wife Rosemary and three children. The leading citizen of Pekisko, Alta., he is also on top of the current Canadian all around standings. There is no doubt at all that Tom Bews is putting back as much, if not more into rodeo, in terms of its promotion.

Business management seminar in St. Albert

A Business Management Seminar on one very common decision faced by small businesses will be held in St. Albert at the St. Albert Inn on June 29, 1977.

Under the Case Study Method, participants will analyze the situation of a small business facing expiry of its lease. The store has the choices to either pay more rent, construct another building, move to another location or buy the building presently occupied. Participants will be exposed to the impact of these decisions on the areas of Business Expansion and Financial Statement.

This seminar is arranged by the Management Services Division of the Federal Business Development Bank, in co-operation with the St. Albert Chamber of Commerce, and will be one of several hundred conducted by the Bank in smaller cities and towns across Canada.

Some 25 to 30 people interested in business are expected to attend the seminar. They will be using the case study method to examine a small business, its financial statements, its business forecast and the pros and cons of different alternatives.

The Bank's Management Services has three main spheres of activity: Management Training, Management Counselling and an Information Service.

The Information Service provides details of approximately 100 Federal Government assistance programs to business. There is also a pamphlet series entitled 'Minding Your Own Business' which now contains 14 pamphlets on various subjects. The Small Business News is issued quarterly.

The Management Counselling provided by the Bank is done mainly by retired executives and concentrates on solving the problems of small business which cannot afford to employ experts on a full-time basis. This service is provided at a nominal daily rate.

The Management Training program, as well as providing seminars on various subjects of interest to business people, also provides management courses to provincial educational institutions for the owners and managers of small businesses.

For further information regarding the above areas, and the on-coming seminar, please contact Mr. Harold Dashevsky, Branch Manager, or Francis Young, Management Services Officer, at the Edmonton West Branch, which services this territory. The address and phone number of the branch are: 11574 - 149 Street, Edmonton and phone 452-3232.

City crest contest winner

Sometime ago, students were invited to submit designs of a crest or symbol depicting or indicative of St. Albert to commemorate the achievement of City Status.

The student body was divided into four categories for judging -- grades one to three, four to six, seven to nine and 10 to 12. While there was just one entry from the junior/senior high school levels, response from the younger age groups was much more enthusiastic with a total of 70 entries.

All art work submitted illustrated a great deal of imagination and creativity, and demonstrated a high level of community spirit and awareness - making judging an extremely difficult task. However, after lengthy review, the following winners were selected:

Grades One, Two and Three - First: Denise Ledi. Gr. 3 Leo Nickerson School; 2nd - Shauna Black, Gr. 3 Leo Nickerson School; 3rd - Darin Rayburn, Gr. 3 Sir Alexander Mackenzie.

Grades Four, Five and Six - 1st: Jennifer Muffit, Gr. 5 Robert Rundle; 2nd - Marla Milton, Gr. 5 Robert Rundle; 3rd - Karen Sadowy, Gr. 4 Bertha Kennedy.

Grades Seven, Eight and Nine - 1st - Lori Coones, Gr. 7 Lorne Akins Junior High - only one entry.

Grades 10, 11 and 12 - No entries.

First prize winners will receive cheques from the City of St. Albert for $25., second prize $15., and third prize $10.00.

Leona Robinson passes at 50 years

Leona Robinson died on Sunday, June 5 after a brief illness. She had been hospitalized in Sturgeon General for 20 days, and would have reached her 51st birthday on June 13.

LEONA ROBINSON

The Reverend Len Musto conducted the funeral service at the Chapel of Chimes on Thursday, June 9, when nephews and husbands of Mrs. Robinson's nieces served as pallbearers. They were Lee Donnenworth, Jimmy and Rickey Wagner, Jimmy Mahovich, Leonard Johnson and Rod Boe, all of Mannville, Alberta. Interment followed at Westlawn Memorial Park.

Luncheon was served at the St. Albert Legion Hall after the services, and later neighbourhood ladies served the family their evening meal at the Robinson home on Gillian Crescent.

Leona Donnenworth was born in Mannville, the daughter of Lee and Amy Donnenworth, and after completing her schooling she worked for a short time at the Post Office in Mannville.

She married Arthur W. Robinson in 1955 in the chapel at Namao base. Art was in the infantry at the time, attached to headquarters at Namao. The couple lived at Griesbach until moving to St. Albert in 1964.

Leona became well known here while working for five years in the meat department at Canada Safeway store, but for most of her married life Mrs. Robinson preferred to be at home with her family. Her husband retired from the army in 1965 and is presently employed with the federal government.

Mrs. Robinson is survived by her husband Art, sons Harvey and Bill of Edmonton and Gordon at home; daughters Sandra Allen and Joanne MacKay of Edmonton and Cathy at home; her mother, Amy Donnenworth of Mannville; one brother, Edwin of Edmonton; two sisters Louise Wagner of Mannville and Joyce Henderson of Tofield; five grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her father in 1962 and brother Walter on January 1, 1977.

Her sudden passing came as a great blow to her husband and family, and she will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

THE AGRICULTURAL & RECREATIONAL LAND OWNERSHIP ACT

Alberta's rich soil and picturesque recreation areas are two of the province's most valuable resources.

In order to ensure that these resources continue to be owned by Albertans and other Canadians, The Agricultural and Recreational Land Ownership Act and Temporary Regulations have been passed.

This new law is designed to prevent non-Canadians from buying significant amounts of prime agricultural and recreational land. However, it does not discourage those existing or future non-Canadian investors who wish to come to Alberta to build new manufacturing plants, expand existing plants, invest in agricultural processing operations, recreational developments, new home subdivisions, or similar developments.

Joint business ventures between non-Canadian enterprises and Alberta companies have been and will continue to be encouraged. These will be excluded from controls if an exemption is approved by the Provincial Cabinet.

Legislative Authority

The Foreign Ownership of Land (Temporary) Regulations were passed under the authority of the Canadian Citizenship Act (Section 33). The Proposed Draft Regulations are expected to be passed under dual authority of the Citizenship Act and The Agricultural and Recreational Land Ownership Act (Bill 40).

Uncontrolled Lands

Some lands are not controlled under the regulations. These include:

- crown land
- mines and minerals

- land within the boundaries of cities, towns, new towns, villages and summer villages
- not more than two parcels of land, containing 20 acres or less in total.

Temporary Regulations Are Now in Effect

In order to allow time through the summer for comments and submissions from the public on the Proposed Draft Regulations and to avoid a rush of foreign purchases of Alberta Land, "The Foreign Ownership of Land (Temporary) Regulations" came into effect on April 26, 1977 by an Order-in-Council (O.C. 404/77) under Section 33 of The Citizenship Act. These Temporary Regulations are identical in essential respects to the Proposed Draft Regulations. Modifications or changes may result from public comments and submissions. Elements of the Temporary and Proposed Draft Regulations are outlined below:

- A. Canadian citizens and landed immigrants are not controlled or affected in any way. Non-Canadians, foreign governments, or corporations incorporated outside Canada will be subject to the controls.
- B. Essentially a "foreign controlled corporation" is one in which the percentage share ownership is more than 50% foreign.
- C. Trusts cannot be used to circumvent the controls.
- D. The regulations do not apply to or affect right of entry orders, pipelines, oil and gas processing plants, or water, gas or electric power lines.
- E. Wills and the transfer of land on death are not controlled.
- F. Enforcement will be by sworn declaration attached to a transfer of land and by investigative procedures in Land Titles Offices and the Companies Branch.
- G. Penalties:
  1. The Citizenship Act sets as a penalty for breach of the Act or regulations, a fine of up to $10,000 and imprisonment of up to one year or both.
  2. Where controlled land is acquired contrary to the regulations, procedures for judicial sale are set forth.
- H. The Registrars of Land Titles are given the authority to require such evidence, verified by statutory declaration or otherwise, as is deemed necessary.
- I. The onus of proving that a person or corporation is eligible to buy Alberta land is on that person or corporation.
- J. Mortgages of land held for security of loans and other indebtedness will be exempt.

The temporary regulations are in effect until December 31, 1977 or until they are replaced by permanent regulations. Parties involved or anticipating involvement in transactions which may fall under the controls should seek legal advice for an interpretation of the regulations.

No Retroactivity in Regulations

The Temporary Regulations are not retroactive for transactions that have been registered. Agreements for sale, interim agreements, options to purchase and foreclosure of mortgages signed prior to April 26, 1977 will be honoured, except those involving more than 5,000 acres. Transactions involving more than 5,000 acres are required to be submitted to Executive Council, which may or may not approve the land transfer. Parties involved in negotiating transactions that have not resulted in signed agreements as of April 26, 1977, but have been under way for some time previous to that date, may also apply for a cabinet exemption.

How to Apply for an Exemption

Requests for exemptions should be submitted in writing and include the following:

- the reason for requesting the exemption
- legal description and size of the land involved
- legal description and size of "controlled land" already owned
- present and proposed use of land
- present and proposed ownership

Those involved in negotiating transactions that have not resulted in signed agreements should provide, in addition to the above, sufficient documentation to verify that negotiations had been in progress for some time prior to April 26, 1977.

Length of Review Process

The length of the review process will vary from request to request depending on the information provided and the need to verify the information. Personal contact may also be required in some cases. It is anticipated that applications will be processed in four to six weeks.

An Opportunity for Public Comments and Submissions

The Proposed Draft Regulations, which were tabled in the Spring session of the legislature, have been held over until late fall before they will be brought into force: This has been done to provide an opportunity for comments and submissions from the public before they are finalized.

Send Submissions or Exemption Requests to:

Deputy Minister of
Renewable Resources
Alberta Energy and Natural Resources
10th Floor, Petroleum Plaza
South Tower
Edmonton, Alberta T5K 2C9

or Telephone 427-6584 for further information.

A copy of The Agricultural and Recreational Land Ownership Act, the Temporary Regulations and the Proposed Draft Regulations or assistance in preparing submissions or exemption requests is available.

Presentations for interested groups on the Proposed Draft Regulations can also be arranged through the above.

St. Albert's airport takes you back 32 years

By Jim McIntyre

Ducks splash away at your approach on the 3,000 foot water runway.

A stuffed owl peers down from the girders in the main hangar and frightens birds away.

The original doors from the Mossbank bombing and gunnery school Sask., "decorate" the front of the main hangar; and the remains of a World War II reconnaissance Westland Lysander wait for restoration like the dead for Resurrection.

All this and more catches you by surprise at the St. Albert Airport, tucked away in green fields, meadows and trees, that remind you of some sleepy aerodrome in southern England recovering from the trauma of the Second World War.

So sequestered and secluded is the airport that it seems a shame to give the location: three miles north-west of St. Albert on 190 acres purchased from Dr. Herman Myers.

As you take your time inspecting the airport which had its beginnings in 1969, becoming fully licensed in 1973, it yields up more of its secrets.

Though quiet, it is really a hive of activity.

Keeping the place going is caretaker and pilot engineer 47 year old Neil Menzies; with him, doing work like restoring aircraft and packing the 3,500 foot gravel runway are his 16 year old son Robbie Menzies and 18 year old Brian Harrold.

Brian is the son of the owner of the private airfield, Terry Harrold of Lamont.

Working quietly in a smaller hangar west of the main hangar, and one which they built themselves are Gerry Connor and Mel Smith, both Edmontonians.

Mr. Connor and Mr. Smith both have plans to restore the Lysander which at the moment is nothing but struts and engine mounted on wheels with the wings at the back of a hangar.

A MAINTENANCE OPERATION

Ask Mr. Menzies what the St. Albert Airport is all about and you soon find out that it's mainly for maintenance and repairs; also, it gets most of its revenue from fire suppression work (water bombing).

The airport is strictly not a flight training centre like the Villeneuve satellite airport

Cont'd

MEL SMITH and Gerry Connors, both of Edmonton, take a breather next to their B-25 which they are "tanking up" ready for this season's water bombing runs.

LOCAL AUTHORITIES BOARD

AND IN THE MATTER OF a petition by the majority of the registered owners of certain territory immediately adjoining the City of St. Albert and lying in the Municipal District of Sturgeon No. 90, requesting annexation of such territory to the City of St. Albert.

All that portion of Road Plan 2288 E.U. which lies south of the production north east across the said road plan of the north boundary of Parcel C Plan 392 E.O. and not presently within the City of St. Albert.

All that portion of the Sturgeon River which lies north east of Big Lake and south west of the production south east across the said Sturgeon River of the north east limit of River Lot 22.

All government road allowances, government road allowance intersections and railways adjoining and intervening the above described lands.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Board has fixed Wednesday, the Twenty-Ninth (29th) day of June, 1977, at the hour of 10:00 A.M. in the Club Mocombo, 200 St. Albert Road, St. Albert, Alberta, as the time and place for resuming the hearing of the said petition.

It may be that you are a party whose rights will be varied or affected by the Board exercising its statutory authority in granting or refusing the annexation application and you are hereby notified that if you wish to make any representation in this regard you may file such written submission with the Board, or appear at the aforementioned public hearing.

just down the road -- about six miles west.

The airport is also a base for a number of crop spraying aircraft like the Thrush Commander which is the aerial version of a humpy-backed person.

You may have seen these crop spraying aircraft flying low over Highway Two as you head out to Morinville, Westlock, or Slave Lake. But there isn't much point in phoning in a complaint to the RCMP; these planes have to fly low because of the nature of their work.

There are some very expensive "toys" at the St. Albert airport.

Like the two Harvard Mark IVs in the main hangar which belong to Pacific Western Airline fliers Captain Joe McGoldrick and John Douglas.

Mr. McGoldrick's is done up in City of Calgary squadron colours and looks as if it could soon be taking off for battle!

The two aircraft hide in the main hangar behind the Mossbank hangar doors which cost about $2,000 when they were brought from that gunnery school.

REGULARS AT THE AIRPORT

Regulars at the airport are two Thrush Commanders, three Cessna Ag-trucks and one Cessna 310 owned by Walker Flying.

Northwest Airways own two B-25 water bombers which were being used at the time of going to press.

G & M Maintenance Services own another B-25 which is being "tanked" up for fire suppression service.

Northwest Airways also have a Canso water bomber and two Beech 18s.

One plane which is a real miss at the St. Albert airport was the last operational Lancaster bomber in Canada which has found a home for itself at the Strathallan Air Museum in Scotland. The "Lanc" is in good company though with the Mosquitoes, Hawker Hurricanes and Supermarine Spitfires of World War II fame.

Mr. Menzies says it was government red tape and economic pressures which forced the sale of the Lancaster.

FUTURE OF ST. ALBERT AIRPORT

What is the future of the

IN CITY OF CALGARY squadron colours, a Harvard Mark IV sits in the main hangar of the St. Albert Airport, its restoration almost completed.

St. Albert Airport, a private strip which can take aircraft at dead weight up to the 21,000 lb. mark?

Mr. Menzies is optimistic about this when he broaches the subject.

Although the airport lost a lot of revenue with the sale of the Lancaster which was used as a water bomber, and also the loss of some water bombing contracts last year, the future is not too gloomy.

Mr. Menzies feels there is a real need for an airport like the one on the northeast portion of the Hudson Bay Reserve, with its quiet rural setting.

First of all maintenance costs are reasonable. Much cheaper than at some of the larger airports which in some cases are driving Canadian aircraft enthusiasts into the United States for repairs.

Mr. Menzies also feels that the airport is perfect for commercial operations and is not in conflict with Edmonton's Industrial Airport, or the recently opened Villeneuve satellite airport.

The airport has excellent approaches and is far enough from St. Albert not to present any hazards to that growing centre.

"No one knows where the place is at," comments Mr. Menzies.

One of the biggest hang-ups for the airport is that it is a private operation.

That means any plans for expansion can be held up by the fact that provincial or federal grants would be very hard to come by.

For instance it would cost a good $400,000 to get the gravel runway paved and it would also be an expensive item just to get the runway oiled.

The runway is not an all weather strip and when it rains it's bad for mud.

The airport could also be expanded out to the west to take the present runway to 5,000 feet.

Mr. Menzies feels there is the possibility of getting a provincial government grant for better hangar facilities.

But then the airport would be up against the planners and experts from organizations like the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission, which all tends to put a damper on the spontaneity of aviation enthusiasts of the kind you find at the St. Albert airport.

Perhaps though the St. Albert airport should maintain its low profile.

It is a pleasant place for a picnic on a Sunday afternoon.

Elmer Beisiegel transferred

A well-known St. Albert resident, Elmer Beisiegel, is leaving his post in St. Albert as district manager for Calgary Power. Mr. Beisiegel is moving to Taber, where he will assume the same position with Calgary Power there.

Elmer has lived in St. Albert for seven years, and has been active in the Chamber of Commerce, the Legion and the Curling Club. He will be accompanied in his move to Taber by one son who remains at home.

Juniors win Onoway fastball tournament - reach B finals in Stony

The St. Albert Juniors fastball team saw plenty of action over the past weekend as they participated in both the Stony Plain sports day and Onoway tournaments. They played a total of five games and came away with three wins and a pair of losses, good enough for a second place finish in the "B" event in Stony Plain, and their first ever tournament win in Onoway.

The Juniors strengthened their playing roster with only one player, Art Stevenson (Calahoo Chiefs), and gained more than they could have hoped for as Stevenson was hot on the mound and at the plate.

Saturday afternoon in the five-team Stony Plain tournament, the Juniors drew the powerful Stony Plain Playboys in the first game, and went down to a 12-2 loss. The experienced Playboys led the 14-team Sturgeon Men's Fastball League with no losses in eight games.

Because one of the teams failed to show for the tournament a draw was held for the bye and St. Albert won, sending them into the final of the "B" event against the Stony Plain Kings who are also in the top three in the league.

Juniors led 1-0 going into the fourth inning but could not contain the Kings as they picked up a pair of runs in the fourth, a single run in the fifth and put it away in the sixth with two more and won the game 5-1.

St. Albert as a result finished in second place in the "B" section and got their $50 entry fee back.

Stony Plain Playboys defeated LBH Builders 10-1 in the "A" final.

CLUB GETS HOT IN ONOWAY

Immediately following the Kings game, St. Albert had to travel to Onoway for a 7 p.m. game with the Alexander Braves. This was the final game of the Saturday draw of the eight-team Onoway tournament.

St. Albert looked a little tired in the first inning as the Braves jumped on starter Blaire Iseke for four runs in the first inning. They came back however in their half of the inning and scored seven runs to take the lead. Mike Mitchell, Matt Lister and Blaire Iseke all had doubles with Blaine Galbraith, Murray Riddell, Dale Reinbolt and Earl Evaniew came up with singles.

Alexander led 10-9 at the end of the fourth but St. Albert came up with three in the fifth and four more in the sixth to put the game out of reach and won by a 16-10 margin.

The Juniors came up with 23 hits and centrefielder Murray Riddell had a perfect four for four at the plate, and drove in five runs.

The win moved the Juniors into the semi-final against the Whitecourt Redwood Braves who have a good hitting team as most of the players are veterans. However, just recently they were beaten 8-0 by the Playboys in the 16-team Fox Creek tournament.

Juniors coach Larry Mitchell, elected to go with Art Stevenson and he came through in fine style as he held the Braves to only two singles while striking out nine and allowing no runs.

The Juniors came up with a pair of runs in the second inning on a triple by Mural Riddell driving home Tony Currie and Wayne White who had both walked. That was the only scoring of the game but the Juniors did manage six hits including a pair by Stevenson.

MET ONOWAY IN FINALS

The win put the Juniors into the finals of "A" event against Onoway, who had earlier wins over Whitecourt Dahl Tigers and Mayerthorpe. Both teams had runners on in the first inning but could not get them home. Juniors came up with a pair of runs in the fourth inning with Stevenson and Matt Lister hitting back to back singles and then both came home on Tony Currie's double into centrefield.

St. Albert increased their lead to 5-0 in the sixth on singles by Stevenson, Lister and Dale Reinbolt to load the bases with one out. Currie's fly ball to deep left field scored Stevenson and Lister and Reinbolt came home on a double by Mike Mitchell.

Onoway scored their only two runs of the game in the sixth inning when Lawrence Truckey and Jim Schulte singled and came home on Clayton Truckey's double.

St. Albert won the game 6-2, getting 14 hits off losing pitcher Jim Schulte, while Stevenson held Onoway to seven hits while striking out 12.

Following the game Juniors Mike Mitchell was awarded a Cooper sports bag for being the tournament's most valuable player.

The win was worth $125 to the Juniors.

Saints hand Busby first loss of the season

St. Albert Willowbrook Saints midget baseball team handed league-leading Busby their first loss of the season Saturday night as they came up with six runs in the seventh inning to take a 9-6, come-from-behind win in a Norwest Midget Baseball League game played in Busby.

Saints followed up that win with another Monday night as they beat Stony Plain 12-5.

In Busby the Saints fell behind 2-0 in the second but came back with three in the third to take a 3-2 lead.

Robbie Tooth drove both runs in with a single after Brent Galbraith and Colin Parayko had walked.

Busby took the lead again in the fifth when they scored a pair of runs. But it didn't last long as the Saints stormed back with a seven run spree in the seventh for a 9-4 lead. Colin Tooth, Bernie Joyal, Tim Shipanoff and Marty Scheibelhofer all had hits in the inning.

Busby threatened in the bottom of the seventh coming up with a pair of runs and leaving two runners on base as the game ended.

Ken Young went all the way for the Saints allowing only three hits and striking out 10.

Monday's game against Stony Plain saw Colin Tooth go all the way on the mound for St. Albert, as his teammates came up with 13 hits including triples by Duane Wade and Bernie Joyal.

Colin Tooth and Duane Wade had three hits each in four trips to the plate.

The regular league schedule is scheduled to finish tonight in St. Albert with the Saints taking on Stony Plain.

Meeting tonight on Junior hockey

The St. Albert and District Hockey Association is meeting tonight in the Akinsdale Clubhouse at 8 p.m. and everyone interested in assisting with the Junior hockey program is requested to attend.

"The association is making decisions with regard to financing the program," said Mr. Tom White, and we hope to sell 200 Founding Memberships at $200 each." The $42,000 which the association hopes to raise in this manner would establish the Junior Club on a sound financial basis. Mr. White told the Gazette, adding that about 80 commitments have been made to date, the bulk of them from individuals in the area.

Certificates will be issued to the founding members and a large plaque to be placed in the new St. Albert arena will bear their names. In addition a page in the Junior hockey programs will be dedicated to the founding members.

In order to give opportunity to as many as possible interested sports fans to get in on the financial decision making, a second meeting will be held next Wednesday at the same time in the same location.

People who are unable to attend either meeting, but wishing to assist, may forward a $200 cheque with name of founding member to the Association at Box 91, St. Albert.

Playboys undefeated in Sturgeon fastball

Stony Plain Playboys defeated Onoway Royals Monday night for their ninth win in as many starts, but still find themselves in second place in the 14 team Sturgeon Valley Men's Fastball League.

The surprising Devon Stingers beat Stony Plain Kings 6-3 Monday night to remain in top spot, one point ahead of the Playboys. Stingers have played three more games than Stony Plain.

In other league games Monday Spruce Grove KC shutout St. Albert Nu-West

A's 3-0; LBH Builders blasted winless Enogh 13-2; Garden Valley Raiders out-scored Total Sound 16-10; Spruce Grove Panthers defeated St. Albert Juniors 9-2 and Calahoo Chiefs won over Alexander Braves by the same 9-2 score.

Tonight's round of games will mark the halfway point of the schedule. All three St. Albert teams will be at home as the Juniors meet the A's and Devon will visit the LBH Builders.

Action is back at Westwind Oval with only one serious injury recorded, when Al Gratton of Edmonton in car 200 was rear ended in a claimer race. Al suffered whiplash plus minor bruises but will be back again tonight. In another accident [above photo] Lloyd Anderson escaped injury when his car No. 61 crashed into the grandstand wall. Winning the claimer event was Gordon Peterson in the Lindond Special. Winning the 25 lap main event, which due to rain was only 16 laps was Wilf Lalonde in the street stock class. Next race date is June 15 at 7 p.m.

Tallier hits grand slammer home for Westcon Blues

The Hercules Girls fastball playoffs are scheduled for next week with teams scrambling for playoff berths. In the Squirt division, the Mitey Sluggers slugged their way to a win over the Blue Jays, while the Ball Busters downed the Golden Hawks in a Monday game. The Red Creamers came up with another win over the Ball Busters on a Wednesday night game. It looks like the playoffs will be exciting with all the teams showing improvement.

On June 6, the junior division saw the Bad News Bears come from behind to defeat the spirited Shamrocks. Sherri Bodnar pitched all the way for the Bears. The same night saw the Standard General Super Sluggers edge the Blue Bombers 20-18. Laura Sanche and Corrine Dochuk worked on the mound for the Super Sluggers. On Wednesday night, the Super Sluggers lost an exciting game to the Bad News Bears 12-8. Helen

Smith and Sherri Bodnar shared the pitching for the Bears. Bonnie Dorichuk and Corrine Dochuk pitched for the Sluggers. All the teams are coming on strong at the finish line to make the playoffs anyone's game.

SENIOR GIRLS

The Westcon Blues and A

& H Steelers played a romping double header on June 7, with the Steelers coming out on top in both games. Janine Gagnon hit four home runs, two in both games, while Diane Luebner hit three home runs in the two games for the Steelers. The game was highlighted by a grand slam home run hit by Monique Tallier in a losing cause for the Blues.

The Dairy Queen and the Pro Western Piranhas tangled on June 7, with Pro Western tucking another win under their belt. Thursday's game saw Dairy Queen and A & H Steelers struggle under bitterly cold conditions to manage to play seven innings. The Steelers won the hard fought battle.

The BACM Panthers, who are the Bantam rep team, have been playing good ball in the Sturgeon league. With plenty of parental support, the Panthers anxiously looking forward to the Zone finals.

The St. Albert Sportshop Angels have been doing well in the Sturgeon senior girls league. The Angels are also looking forward to the Zone finals in their division. May we wish both rep teams well in the playoffs and may you go on to put St. Albert on the western Canadian map.

St. Albert T-Ball action Thursday evening between the Blue Jays (fielding) and the Eagles (batting). All games are played Tuesdays and Thursdays at Langley Park. T-Ball gets its name from the practice of 'teeling up' the ball at home plate. This allows the youngsters to get a 'sure' hit each time and develop some fundamental baseball skills before getting into hitting a pitch. Each team has five fielders and an extra shortstop between first and second which permits all players to play.

St. Albert Sailfish dominate swim meet

At the annual Rodeo Swim Meet held in the Grosvenor Pool on Sunday, June 12, the St. Albert summer swimming club, the Sailfish, won all but six events to earn a resounding win over the teams invited from Fort Saskatchewan, Spruce Grove and Leduc.

Spruce Grove took second place honors and it must be noted that they brought only part of their team here, with the rest participating in a meet elsewhere. A total of about 150 swimmers competed in the meet, about 45 of them being local swimmers, in ideal weather.

Setting a festive tone for the meet was the first event, a "fun" rally with teams from four St. Albert organizations. The Lions Club, Kinsmen, Swim Club executive, and Kinettes entered teams. Some spectators felt the Kinettes won the event on the basis of costume alone, attired as they were in charming Hawaiian garb. The actual winner of the event is open to question, since swimming techniques used by some team members were a bit unorthodox.

Peter Odinga is the coach of the Sailfish swim team. Debbie Wilson assists with instructional training for the younger members. Swimmers interested in being part of the team can still try out for it by coming to the 6 p.m. practice any weekday evening.

The Sailfish Swim team starts now with serious training and preparation for the St. Albert Invitational Swim Meet on June 26, when Drayton Valley, Spruce Grove, Leduc, and probably Edson will be bringing teams here. St. Albert swimmers will also participate in a meet in Leduc on June 25.

Nu West A's second in Athabasca

Linario Outlaws defeated St. Albert Nu West A's 7-4 in the final game of the 10-team Athabasca fastball tournament Sunday afternoon to take home top money of $200.00.

A's reached the final with veteran Dick Bird tossing a 4-0 shutout over Lincoln Hotel in the semi final game.

The A's opening game of the tournament gave them a 6-3 win over Fort Assiniboine with Bird the winning pitcher.

Rick Wright of the A's had eight hits in 11 trips to the plate over the three games, and won a trophy for the top hitter in the tournament.

Summer Games tennis trials

The tennis trials to select a team to represent Zone 5 at the Alberta Summer Games, will be held at the Mission Courts in St. Albert on Saturday, June 25.

The team will consist of six juniors (under 18 as of September 30, 1976), six in the open category and two in the junior veterans (35 and over as of September 30, 1976).

Residents of Zone 5 interested in participating in the trials may obtain further details by contacting Lorne Wood, 459-8696 and the deadline for receipt of entries is Tuesday, June 21.

on the Arrows seemed to have pulled together as evident by their two wins last week.

Monday the Arrows defeated the Bullets 3-2 in a close contest and then on Wednesday they dropped the slumping Rockets 4-2. Player of the week, Ken Neiss, showed strong performances in both Arrow games.

Other action during the week saw the Cannons regain first spot by overcoming the Rockets 3-0 in a game which was highlighted by a strong defensive display by the Cannons.

The Bullets saved face after their Monday night loss to the Arrows by overpowering the Cannons 4-1.

With only six games left in the first half of the season any team can still finish in top spot and capture the trophy awarded for the best first half team.

Organizers of the league report increased fan support but they still feel more could be forthcoming.

Spruce Grove fastball tournament this weekend

The annual Spruce Grove Panthers men's and ladies fastball tournament will be held this weekend, not in the Grove but in Stony Plain.

A spokesman for the Panthers said the situation in the Grove, concerning diamonds, is ridiculous.

Due to construction work in progress on the four older diamonds the Grove is left with only two and the popular 32 mens and eight ladies teams could not be accommodated.

Top prize money in the "A" men's event will be $700 with the runner-up getting $500.00.

The "B" winner will receive $500 and the loser $400.00.

THE ALBERTA AIR SHOW CELEBRATIONS

Lakeland Tourist Zone July 1-3, 1977

The Alberta Airshow at Canadian Forces Base, Cold Lake, will be the largest military airshow in Canada this year. There'll be a fascinating array of international military aircraft, sleek modern jet fighters, civilian performers, stunts and daredevil aerobatics, many pioneer and older aircraft in keeping with the Airshow's "aviation nostalgia" theme, as well as interesting and informative ground displays. But there'll be lots more to see and do, because neighbouring communities in the Lakeland Tourist Zone will be joining in the celebrations. Take in the rodeo at Bonnyville or the races, activities, parades and carnival atmosphere that you'll find in Grand Centre and Cold Lake. It's fun for the whole family. And you can enjoy the Lakeland's famous fishing, beaches and scenic attractions at the same time. Over 8,000 campsites will be available within a 30-mile radius. Make a weekend of it. Or a week.

The Alberta Airshow - Saturday afternoon, July 2nd (open for viewing of ground exhibits) and Sunday, July 3rd (the Airshow) Canadian Forces Base, Cold Lake.

Featured performers:

- Alberta Arrows - High speed formation aerobatics with "hot" CF-104 Starfighters
- Skyhawks - the Canadian Forces expert parachute team. Sky manoeuvres, smoke trails, sky aerobatics
- Dragonflies - helicopter formation flying, synchronized aerobatics
- Canadian Reds - superbly aerobatic Pitts S-2A biplanes in thrilling action
- Western Warbirds - an impressive flying display of World War II aircraft
- Art Scholl - legendary competition aerobatic pilot with his unique Super Chipmunk
- Joann Osterud - dramatic aerobatics with her Stephens Akro experimental mid-wing monoplane

The St. Albert Pee wee Lacrosse team carried the play to the Whitecourt team throughout the game played Saturday morning in the St. Albert Arena. Prior to the game the team was presented with City of St. Albert pins; the first time the new pins have been used in a sporting event.

Pee wee lacrosse team wins one loses one

Wednesday, June 1 at the St. Albert Arena the local pee wee lacrosse team triumphed in a thrilling 4-3 game against North Glenora. As a result St. Albert remained in second place in the five-team Edmonton and district lacrosse league.

In the close checking first period each team scored once, with St. Albert captain Lee Carter opening the session with an unassisted goal. Robbie Bonah counted for the visitors. The second period opened up a bit but again the teams traded scoring with the period ending in a 3-3 tie. For St. Albert both alternate captains Doug Lissey and Danny McClain counted on unassisted efforts. Jim Hargreaves, who assisted the first North Glenora goal scored twice in this period, assisted by Robbie Bonah.

The final period was a continuation of the goaltenders duel of the opening period. Both Stacey Doll of St. Albert and Darwin Hopkins in the opposite net repeatedly held off the many scoring attempts. Finally, with just four minutes remaining, St. Albert forward John McKinley drove well into the opposing zone, and flipped a pass to Doug Lissey who cleanly beat the North Glenora goalie.

St. Albert has fared less well against very strong teams from Southeast Edmonton and West Edmonton. On Monday, again in St. Albert, the latter shutout the locals 6-0 in a game which was closer than the score indicates.

Persons interested in watching this exciting sport, which is truly Canada's national game, are encouraged to come out to the arena Mondays and Wednesdays through to July 4. On most days the pee wees play at 6:30 and the bantams at 8 p.m. The St. Albert teams operate without major sponsorships or service club backing and will appreciate all types of support.

Minor football threatened by lack of volunteers

Young footballers in St. Albert may be in for a big disappointment if the St. Albert Minor Hockey League is forced to fold. The organization is struggling to stay in the game, but it may be sidelined if more volunteers are not found to lend their efforts to the league.

Last year, three people gave unstintingly of themselves to keep St. Albert boys playing football, but this year all three have dropped out, unable to continue carrying the burden or work. If anyone in the city feels they could give some of their time to the cause of minor football, they should phone Kerry McKenzie at 459-8565. A meeting will be held concerning the league's future on Thursday, June 21, at 7:30 p.m., at 52 Fenwick Crescent.

The minor football league enables boys aged 10-13 to play the game. Volunteers are desperately needed to act as coaches, directors, timekeepers, statisticians and an assortment of other functions.

Lacrosse win over Whitecourt

The St. Albert Pee wee lacrosse team hosted a team from Whitecourt, Alberta, at the local arena Saturday morning. The visitors, the first team to be organized in Whitecourt, came for the exhibition match looking for experience. Although St. Albert played to a 9-3 win, the match was interesting and well played by both sides.

The first period scoring began in a very unusual manner with St. Albert goalie Stacey Doll beating his opposite number when his clearing pass took a bad hop and caught the corner of the net. Whitecourt responded quickly, however, when John Ross scored on a breakaway, then counted again late in the period, sending the local boys to the dressing room down one.

The second period saw the St. Albert team catch fire and score four unanswered goals, one by each of John McKinley, Chris Lane, Doug Lissey, and Danny McClain.

In the final frame, the same four St. Albert players each counted once more, while Whitecourt player John Thompson finished off the scoring from a scramble around the net. The game was very cleanly played, from the opening ceremony, where the new St. Albert city pins were presented by the local boys to their visitors, to the final traditional handshakes.

Minor softball championships this weekend

The Sturgeon Minor Softball League championships will be played this weekend in Morinville and Villeneuve with all four age groups seeing action. All division championship games should provide some excellent action.

10 AND UNDER

This is the youngest age group playing and all seven league teams will be trying for the championship. All games will be played in Morinville with the opening three games to start at 12 noon.

The Sportshop Jets peewee soccer team has virtually blown all competition off the field in racking up a record which shows only two goals against while scoring over 70. Coaches Jim Pierce and John Meara feel the team has a sure shot at provincial playoff action unless some unknown team should come along to upset their club. Pictured above, back row, left to right are: Graham Hogg, David Schlotke, Jim Hammett, Bradley Pierce, Derek Bradford, Greg Amyotte and Carry Newman. In the front row, left to right: Terry Proctor, Todd Shore, Biff Jones, Darren Oke, Billy Mitchell, and Greg Smith.

Local lacrosse Bantams beat 1st place West Edmonton

On Wednesday, June 8, the St. Albert bantam lacrosse team beat the tough West Edmonton Canadians 7 to 6 in a game played at the St. Albert Arena. It was the first time the local bantams had beaten the west end team in five years.

St. Albert opened the scoring early in the first period when Ashley Gusikowski found an opening and scored. Then West Edmonton countered; the teams exchanged goals and left the floor tied at two goals apiece. Ted Gusikowski scored the second St. Albert goal. St. Albert had controlled the play during the period and sound defensive work had kept most of West Edmonton's shots coming from a long ways out.

The second period saw the visitors score in the first minute of play and they managed to get the better of St. Albert, outscoring them 3 to 2 in that 20 minutes. St. Albert goalie Chris Lane was exceptional stopping many breakaways. The St. Albert goals were made by Brad Anderson and Garret Doll.

The early portion of the third period looked like a shooting gallery as the visitors scored in the first two minutes and bombarded the home team goal with innumerable shots. Chris Lane held St. Albert in the game however and four minutes later Garret Doll closed the margin to 6-5 with another goal. The locals did not give up and again Doll scored, outrunning the opposition for a breakaway. Still going strong, he tallied his fourth of the night in the final two minutes, giving St. Albert the decisive 7 to 6 edge.

Damage payments in the thousands of dollars! Extensive downtime! A community angry because its gas supply has been cut off! Tragic explosions!

These things happen too often. To contractors, backhoe operators, even to backyard power posthole diggers.

Maybe it's because Alberta is such a busy place. In the past year over 465 miles of underground gas mains were installed in Northwestern Utilities' service area. That makes a total of 6,720 miles of them plus over 210,000 individual service lines. How does a person know where to start digging?

Plan to call your gas company's "Pipe Locator Team" at least 48 hours before you dig. They have radio dispatch trucks. They'll come and stake out the alignment of all gas lines so you can dig safely. The service is free. Your life is worth the effort.

SAFeway SEALS AND
MELTON'S LEAD MOSQU-
ITO PLAYOFFS; BEAVERS
ELIMINATE THREE
TEAMS ALREADY

Howdy partner, our St. Albert Minor Baseball League has almost become a 24-hour operation ... as our weekly report will attest. Tournaments, round-robin playdowns, and single knockout playoffs, are the order of the day around here. As of midnight, Monday, June 13 ...

MOSQUITO LEAGUE

Division A	W	L	P
Safeway Seals	2	0	4
Sturgeon Meats	1	1	2
Nu West Homers	1	1	2
Belmont Bombers	0	2	0

All four division A teams are very much alive and kicking after the first week of round-robin Mosquito play even though the Safeway

Seals are the lone unbeaten squad.

Safeway checked out the Nu West Homers last Tuesday 20-8 for an easy win. The Seals refused to take a dive to Sturgeon Meats, taking a squeaker Thursday 6-5. Colin Hefford's Meat Merchants placed an 18-10 deposit on the Belmont Credit Union Bombers in the other Tuesday contest. The Nu West Homers built a 13-10 hanger around the same Bombers Thursday.

Division B	W	L	P
Melton's M-M	2	0	4
LP Red Rooster	2	1	4
Gazette Cards	2	1	4
Springer Angels	1	2	2
Buxton Gallery	1	2	2
Graham Giants	0	2	0

Lorne Ross and his Melton Mighty-Mites are looking mighty tough in Mosquito B division playoff action ... mostly on the strength of a tight 15-14 victory over the Buxton Gallery last Wednesday. The undefeated "Mits" were idle last Monday.

In the meantime, Bob Smilanish's Buxtons, upset the Lacombe Park Red Roosters 22-19 in a Monday night skirmish. Up to that encounter, coach Vic Fouquette's Roosters had been "cackling good" - especially since winging the Angels 9-4 in a Wednesday donny-brook. Russ Tillapaugh's Gazette Cards shuffled past the Graham Giants 20-16 Wednesday and Springer Angels 13-12 in between Monday's sprinkles on diamond #13.

BEAVER DIVISION

FINAL STANDINGS

Crown Roughnecks	8	5	16
Trailer Kings	6	4	12
Sportshop Cubs	5	5	10
Grandin Mets	4	5	8
Nu West Angels	4	6	8
The Bucket	3	8	6
Big Lake Sod Squad	1	8	2

The baseball season closed down early for three Beaver division teams as a result of first round playoff knockout activity last Monday.

Pitcher Terry Litke and the Nu-West Angels emptied the Bucket 7-4. Coach Pat Lockert's always-sharp baseballers made a contest out of it throughout the rain-dampened affair as moundsmen Lee Fenton and Dean Williams kept their mates in the game until the last.

The Grandin Shopping Centre Mets came from behind to close out the season for the Big Lake Sod-Squad behind the fine relief hurling of Ronnie D'Haine. Spectacular fielding and hitting on behalf of the Sod-Squad almost spelled doom for Coach Al Kruse's Met nine.

In Monday's wind-up tilt, the currently unblemished Sturgeon Valley Sod-Giants put the Sportshop Cubs into hibernation 14-6.

BANTAM DIVISION

Bermont Broncos	7	3	1	15
Trailer Kings	7	4	0	14
Link Blue Jays	6	5	1	13
Penn. Blasters	2	10	0	4

With one more week to go - in regular season bantam play - and "the team to watch" is the Link Hardware Blue Jays. Now in third place, the Jays deserve the distinction on the basis of their last three outings.

In 1-2-3 order, Coach Neil Hemeryck's Birds have disposed of the Trailer Kings, the Blasters, and their most recent plum, the league leading Bermont Broncos.

Flagstone Field must be "home diamond" for the Blue Jays. It was there, on Tuesday, when they found themselves losing 9-2 against the Blasters that "things" began to happen - like base hits. When it was over the Jays left the field on the long end of a 15-14 score. It was much the same last Thursday, the Link aggregation found their hitting eyes at the expense of Brent Biollo and Blain Malinchyn to overtake the Bronks and corral them 13-9.

To make matters worse for the league leaders, the man-shy Bermonts were upset earlier, when Doug Rechlo and Neil's Trailer Kings trounced the Bronks 11-6 on Lorne Akins field.

What changes will there be by this time next week?

IN TOURNEY PLAY

Three "bunches" of baseball Warriors wearing the uniforms of the Belmont Credit Union Bombers, St. Albert Pirates, and Neil's Trailer Kings made many fans in Edmonton sit up and take notice after a weekend of diamond fun at the Rosslyn complex.

Mentored by Vic Hogan, the Belmont CU Bombers batted their way into the finals of the Mosquito A event shutting out Les Long's Kilkenny Mosquitoes 17-0. They found the going tougher in the finals losing 10-3 on Sunday to Kenilworth, the provincial runner-up last year. Kilkenny edged Kilarney for the B event trophy earlier in the day Sunday.

Although St. Albert was not represented in the Beaver category, the Bantams entered two teams.

Neil's Travelling Trailer Kings found Kensington "too-much, too-soon" going down 18-5 in six innings. St. Albert's #2 entry, the Pirates, (put together by Art Rechlo on one night's notice) gave St. Francis of Warburg more than they had expected, before dropping a 6-2 decision. St. Francis had little trouble in beating Peace River 13-3 for the A event title and trophy.

The Trailer Kings were able to continue in the B section after meeting and beating their own counterparts, the Pirates, 13-6 to advance to the 9 a.m. opener on Sunday with Dellwood.

Dellwood proved a worthy opponent by knocking the Trailer King Bantams out of further tourney competition 13-12. Pint-size Inglewood captured the B event trophy 15-2 from Dellwood later the same day.

ON CABLE 5 TONIGHT

Thanks to Wes Hardy, president of the Edmonton Minor Baseball Association, we received permission to video tape parts of the E.B.A. tournament conducted in Edmonton last weekend. Tonight on the Sports Scene (at 9 p.m. - Cable 5) you will definitely see an inning or so of the fine game between the St. Albert Bantam Pirates and the tournament champs, St. Francis. Along with that, an interview with Peace River Coach Gordon Northy and his all-star pitcher Kevin Byers. With time permitting, we might see some play by play of the game between the same Pirates and Neil's Travelling Trailer Kings.

Madeline Labonte, Calahoo pioneer dies at 77

By Liz McLeod
Calahoo and district are mourning the loss of another one of its pioneers, in the person of a very fine, loving lady, Mrs. Madeline Labonte of R.R. 1 Calahoo, who passed away on Monday, May 30, 1977 in the Misericordia Hospital, Edmonton, after a lengthy illness. She was 77 years of age.

Mrs. Labonte was born in Calahoo on August 20, 1899, to Jim and Louise Callihoo.

Then on May 5, 1920, Madeline was married to Mr. Fred Labonte, in the Villeneuve Catholic Church.

They continued to live in this area and raised a fine family.

In 1935 they moved to their present home just south and west of Calahoo.

Mrs. Labonte was predeceased by one son Eli in 1971. She is survived by her loving husband Fred, two sons, Edward (Lamarr) and his wife Bernice and family of Calahoo, James (Jiggs) and his wife Lillian and family of Spruce Grove. Also surviving are five daughters and their husbands and families: Alice and Roderick Calahoo of St. Albert; Edith and Leonard Keller of Fort McMurray; Louise and Gordon Gallagher of St. Albert; Dolly and Charlie Scott of Richmond, B.C., and Emily and Robert (Bob) Wilson of Coquitlam, B.C., besides 33 grandchildren, 25 great grandchildren and one great great grand-daughter. She is also survived by six brothers, Dan and Joe Callihoo living in Barrhead, Roddy and Jim Callihoo of Edmonton, Frank Callihoo in St. Albert and Richard Callihoo of Valhalla, Alberta and two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Anderson living in Calgary and Lena Callihoo whose home is in Edmonton.

Prayers were held for this pleasant neighbor at 8 p.m. in St. Albert Church on June 1.

On Thursday, June 2 at 10 a.m. the funeral services were held in St. Albert Church, with Rev. Jacques Joly OMI officiating.

Mrs. Earl (Sharon) Naul of Calahoo performed beautifully as organist while Calahoo St. Catherine's Church choir rendered beautiful hymns, fitting to the occasion.

The active pallbearers were six grandsons: Darrel Gallagher, brothers Donald, James, Ian and Randy Calahoo; and Dale Labonte.

Rev. Father Joly took the graveside service and interment was in the church cemetery.

Very special thanks also to Mrs. John Kay Krupa of St. Albert, and the ladies, who prepared and served the lunch afterwards.

Connelly-McKinley Ltd., funeral directors, were in charge of arrangements.

IT AIN'T MUCH fun being tethered up, but these cows from the Sturgeon 4H Dairy Club were quite happy to take part in the Gibbons Agri-Fair last weekend.

Horst Schmid to head Frontier Daze Parade

The Frontier Daze parade this year will be on Saturday, June 25 commencing at 10:30 a.m. The route, as in previous years, proceeds north from the MD of Sturgeon building to the Cenotaph, turns left and follows the main street as far as the fire hall.

The parade marshal will be Honorable Horst A. Schmid, minister of Culture, Youth, and Recreation. Some other dignitaries who are expected to be in the parade include Ernie Jamison, MLA Gordon Taylor, MLA for Drumheller, Peter Elzinga, MP for Pembina and the following mayors: Art Stapleton of Morinville, Richard Plain of St. Albert and Henry Powell of Fort Saskatchewan.

An important part of every parade is band music and to provide that this year will be The Edmonton Sabres Band Core, The Morinville Drum and Bugle Band, and The Hobbema Band.

There will, of course, be clowns on hand to entertain the kids and pass out treats. In addition, there will be a variety of floats and, as in the past, parade judges will be present. Trophies, donated by the RCMP detachment members, will be awarded to the following floats: best overall, best originality, and best theme presentation. There will also be an award for the best decorated bicycle.

Parade entries may be made to Roger Champagne at 939-4081.

Farmers have access to scales

Farmers may now use highway weigh scales to weigh farm products. In making the announcement Alberta Agriculture explained that transactions will be simplified by issuing a weigh slip each time the scales are used regardless of whether the vehicle is loaded or empty.

In the case of two weight categories two slips will be issued making it possible to obtain the net weight of any load.

Since no two scales are identical it is recommended that farmers choose one scale and continue to use only it.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the nearest transport field district office or from the district agriculturist.

Linda Jacobs, earns Canada Cord

The presentation of the first Canada Cord to a Morinville Guide was a highlight of the annual year end banquet held for the Morinville Guides and Brownies on May 24 at the Recreation Centre.

To earn her Canada Cord Linda Jacobs had first to earn her All Around cord. In addition she holds a total of 43 badges and emblems, and she has put in 15 hours of volunteer work at the Morinville library. The cord was presented to Linda by Captain Karen Emilson and Deputy Commissioner Helen Lesyshen.

Over five years of Guiding Linda has attended many camps at which she has shared her knowledge of camp skills to the enjoyment of all.

In the fall Linda will be attending another ceremony where all the Guides in Alberta who earned the Canada Cord this year will be honoured. In past years the Lieutenant Governor has honoured the girls by attending and presenting the cords, and it is hoped he will again acknowledge the hard work of the girls.

Tommy Callihoo celebrates birthday

By Liz McLeod

Wednesday, June 8 was an important day to the Senior Citizens of Calahoo, who had their regular meeting of the Goldenage Club in the Gazebo at 1:30 p.m.

Only two dozen neighbors and friends came out but really enjoyed togetherness and fun, playing cards first and then bingo, which Mrs. Laura Boddez so capably called.

Then, during lunch, a beautiful angel food cake with the numbers 68 decorating it, was set before

Tommy Callihoo and all rose to sing happy birthday to him.

His wife Rose cut the cake and passed it around for all to enjoy.

It was nice to see Mr. Frank Gawron out to this meeting, looking so well, and a joy to visit with, as is Mrs. Bertha Berube, who was also present.

The next meeting of Calahoo Goldenage Club will be held in the Gazebo on Wednesday, June 22 and visitors are always welcome.

Goldenage Club met May 25

Charlotte St. Germain, program co-ordinator of Sturgeon Regional Recreation, Morinville, came and took group pictures.

Bingo was played before the always pleasant lunch hour, so old friends could catch up on happenings and last minute instructions were received as to time and place to meet on June 1, to get to the big do at the Red Barn.

The Calahoo Goldenagers will again meet on June 8 in the Gazebo at 1:30 p.m. and visitors are always welcome.

Gibbons Senior Citizens

A regular meeting of the Last Round-up was held in the Legion Hut on June 9. Mr. and Mrs. Huckle of Chilliwack, B.C., showed slides. Some had been taken in Gibbons in 1976 at a meeting of the seniors. Others had been taken on a trip through several of the States. They were beautiful, so clear and the colors showed up so well. Mrs. Huckle gave the commentary and made the pictures more interesting. Many thanks to the Huckles for sharing their travels with us. We certainly enjoyed them. Also thanks to Jim and Cathie Shaw for arranging the showing and bringing Mr. and Mrs. Huckle to Gibbons.

After the pictures we had a short meeting. Thirty-two members answered roll call. There were the two visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Huckle.

Emily brought up the matter of the Ag. Fair "this past weekend." She reminded everyone that each family was to contribute two articles of baking for our "Tea Garden" Saturday and Sunday.

It was announced there will be an open house on Sunday, June 19 at the Sunnyside Hall from two to five in the afternoon, in honor of Myrtle McCrim-mon's birthday.

The cost of the bus trip to Muttarts was $1.20 each and Sheila is collecting. We have already paid our share to Bon Accord on June 1.

There was a "thank you" note sent to Walter Jerram and Bill Cochrane, on behalf of the Gibbons Senior Citizens for the use of the Red Barn for the barbecue.

Cathie and Jim Shaw have invited the members to their farm for a picnic on June 23. Just bring yourself and be at the hut by 1:30.

Lillian and Reg Austin attended the Alberta Council on Aging 11th annual and educational meeting held at the University of Lethbridge on May 26, 27 and 28. They both gave very interesting reports on the meetings and seminars.

Happy birthday was wished to Don Bevington, who is flying to England for a visit.

A lovely lunch was provided and served by Jean Blom, Kay Morin and Lillian Potter. Thanks very much ladies.

A few games of bingo were played for grocery prizes, to round out an enjoyable afternoon.

Don't forget, we meet at the hut at 1:30 June 23 to travel to the Shaw farm. See you then!

It was a good weekend sportswise for Bon Accord teams. The senior ladies placed second to the winning Fort Saskatchewan team in the softball tournament at Gibbons.

In the soccer tournament, the mini-mites, mites and bantams brought home trophies, with the peewees losing in the finals. The senior baseball Tigers advanced to the semi-finals at Fort Saskatchewan by defeating Lamont, but then lost out to Two Hills, eventual winners of the tournament.

Soccer coaches extend a big thank you to the players and fans for their support.

Tigers played two games last week, winning against Linaria and losing to Morinville. On June 21, Barrhead will play here, game time 7 p.m. On June 22, the Tigers will travel to Vimy.

In peewee soccer, games were played on June 1, 6 and 8 with the home team winning over Gibbons A's 3-0, over Redwater by 5-0 and over Fort #1 by 3-1.

Congratulations to John Bland and Doris Carleton, both winners of first prizes for their entries in the Gibbons Agri-Fair. Mr. Bland's entry was an enlarged and framed photo of a beaver dam and Mrs. Carleton won her red ribbon for a child's crib quilt. An honorable mention went to Patti Milligan for a hooked rug entered in adult rug making as there was no junior class.

On June 7 a group of ladies got together for a game of softball. Approximately 18 women thoroughly enjoyed themselves. There were very few strike outs and a few simple errors (due to the hot weather and the bright sun). It wasn't really important which team won as the ladies all participated for fitness and fun. After about seven innings the game ended with the agreement that they'd meet the following week for another fun-filled, exciting evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Montpetit are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Lucy to Bud Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Love of Edmonton. No date has yet been set for the wedding.

On June 8 the Lions Club of Legal held their last bingo for the summer at the community hall. The bingos will commence in the fall again, however.

The winners consisted of: Game 1 Darlene Halls, Game 2 Lucille Pelletier, Game 3 Joyce Pelletier, Game 4 Mrs. Raymond Ouellette, Game 5 Mrs. Ray Ouellette, Game 6 Mrs. Alice St. Jean, Game 7 Rita St. Jean and Collette Bilodeau, Game 8 Georgette Cyr, Game 9 Mrs. Gordon Bruce, Game 10 Kathleen St. Martin, Game 11 Cheryl St. Martin, Game 12 Glen Newell, Game 13 Beatrice Carriere, Game 14 Ken Hunting, Rita St. Jean and Yvette Gagne, Game 15 Mrs. G. Bruce and Mrs. D. Hunting.

The jackpot was won by Mrs. Therese Oligny.

Many thanks to Mutt and Jeff's restaurant for sponsoring the special pizza bingo.

The bingo chairman would like to thank all those people who helped in the preparation of the bingos and all those who worked bingo nights. It was greatly appreciated.

Also the Lions Club members are preparing addresses for the citizens of Legal. If they have not contacted you please let Gaston Parent know at his home telephone number 961-3953.

Announcing a new way to bar weeds from your barley

TORDON* 202C brand Herbicide controls problem weeds—for less

This new herbicide, extensively tested in the U.S. and Canada, has proven itself in the control of annual broadleaf weeds and top growth of certain perennial weeds in barley. It controls a wide variety of broadleaf weeds. If you've been plagued by Russian thistle, redroot pigweed, lamb's quarters, stinkweed, cocklebur, dandelion or wild mustard—TORDON 202C brand Herbicide is for you. Even hard-to-kill broadleaves are susceptible. TORDON 202C Herbicide significantly controls growth of wild buckwheat, green smartweed and Canada thistle.

Effective new formula for weed control
TORDON 202C is a formulation containing

Picloram and 2,4-D amine salts. It is water soluble and very selective when compared to competitive herbicides. Barley is very tolerant at the recommended dosages. Just spray it on and let it go to work on those weeds!

Less expensive in use!

TORDON 202C has proven to be more economical in use than any other herbicide, except phenoxy herbicides used alone. Price per pail? $37.40—and depending on frequency of treatment, your cost per acre is $1.06 to $1.60. Two pails of TORDON 202C provide effective coverage of up to 71 acres.

Free Sportsman's Kit with every

10-gallon purchase Buy two pails of TORDON 202C Herbicide and, upon receipt of the special form (available at your dealer) Dow will forward a special Sportsman's Kit to you. This handy Kit is made up of 2 Thermos flasks plus a dessert container—in a special carry-case.
